183 Seniors on BIE Day Visits

Free Enterprise Principles Are Given Emphasis

Prin. John Trace of Washington C. H. High School summed up the student reaction to Wednesday's Business-Industry-Education Day with one word: "Splendid."

His appraisal of this "splendid" student reaction to the day the 183 seniors from five high schools spent in businesses and industries to learn from the top executives or their representatives about the American system of free enterprise and what makes it tick during a brief review session when they returned to the high school auditorium.

He commented, too, that many of them had said they felt they learned a great deal and appreciated the opportunity to participate in the B-I-E Day program; most of them, he added, said they would have been glad to participate even on their own time.

From the spokesmen for business and industry came these typical reactions: "The students were very receptive" and "their attitude was very good."

Thus, a sampling of reaction among the seniors and the business and industry spokesmen revealed that everyone considered the event worthwhile and practical.

This is the fourth B-I-E Day held in Fayette County; they all have followed the same general pattern. It has been emphasized that the BIE Day visits of the seniors are not merely plant tours, but rather that they would be given explanations of the operations of the businesses and industries.

THE EVENT started at the Washington C. H. High School auditorium where Supt. W. A. Smith welcomed the 20 seniors from Bloomingburg, 17 from Jeffersonville, 11 from Madison Mills, 7 from Good Hope and 128 from Washington C. H. and urged them to pay close attention to what they were to see and hear during the day.

Robert Terhune, president of the Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored the BI-E Day served as the master of ceremonies for the orientation meeting.

Rev. Clinton W. Swengel, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, told the young people of the responsibilities that are theirs in this American way of life and its free enterprise system.

A motion picture entitled "It's Everybody's Business," made cooperatively by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and the I. E. Du Pont Co., was shown. It underscored the benefits and responsibilities of free enterprise.

Glen Allen, the manager of the Chamber, then called out the names of the seniors and assigned them to their business and industry hosts for the day. The students also were the guests of their hosts for lunch; most of them were taken to an outside restaurant.

All of the students returned to the high school auditorium in time for regular school dismissal. Those who had come from the county high schools boarded the busses immediately for the return while those of the city school went to the

WHS Vo-Ag Teacher Submits Resignation

Dewey Huffman, who has headed the Washington C. H. High School vocational agriculture department for the last three years, has handed his resignation to Supt. Smith, who said it would be taken up for official action by the School Board at a special meeting Monday.

Supt. Smith, who made the announcement, indicated school authorities would grant his request. It was obious, however, that Supt. Smith felt he had done such a good job here that his place would be hard to fill.

Huffman had been offered a present position by the board at its last meeting.

Huffman gave the key to his plans for the future in his letter of resignation.

He expressed his appreciation of the "kind consideration" extended to him by the school officials and other members of the faculty and said this had done much to make his stay here "a happy one."

Then he said that he had accepted no position yet although he has had several "encouraging offers."

He did not indicate what these offers were, but he did say in his letter that he hoped to remain here and get into some phase of work in the field of agriculture.

Although he was native of Pikeville, Ky., Huffman lived in Jackson County, Ohio, where he had a small farm, before he entered the vo ag service and eventually came to Washington C. H.

He went into the army when he was graduated from high school and lost a leg in the famed "Battle of the Bulge" in Europe in the second world war. Out of the army, he took a position of office manager for a lumber company in Detroit but returned to the farm and finally went to Ohio State University's College of Agriculture from which he was graduated with qualifications for a vocational agriculture teacher. He is now working for his master's degree at Ohio State.

Severe Storms Hit Some Areas

CHICAGO (AP) — Thunderstorms, some severe, rumbled across wide areas of the mid-continent during the night and early today. Tornadic winds whipped some sections in Nebraska, Oklahoma and Kansas.

The stormy weather extended from Minnesota and the eastern Dakotas southward to the western Gulf of Mexico.

A small tornado hit a farm area near Rokeby, Neb., southeast of Lincoln, late last night but no injuries were reported. Several tornado funnels were reported in south central Kansas and northern Oklahoma. Some farm buildings were damaged. One person was injured in Oklahoma, which was hit by hail and rain.

Big Atomic Test Postponed Again

SURVIVAL CITY, Nev. (AP)—Unfavorable winds today caused the third postponement of the big atomic test of the current series.

Operation Cue thus became Operation Miscue to the more than 5,000 persons who braved another chilly desert night for exercises designed to test this nation's civil defenses.

The 40-kiloton test was called off at the last minute, just before the bomb was scheduled to go off at 5:15 a. m. The postponement came after a weather conference starting at 4:45 a. m.

Fisherman's Body Found In Lake

CELINA (AP)—Deputies said the body of Wilfred Abels, 31, of Coldwater was recovered yesterday from Lake St. Marys.

Abels was believed drowned during a heavy windstorm last Friday. The body of an unidentified man, a fishing companion of Abels, has not been recovered.

'3 R's' Bill Compromise Gets Approval

Ohio's Legislature Lists Basic Subjects For Public Schools

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Come next September — if Gov. Frank J. Lausche approves — Ohio schools again will be required to teach eight basic subjects.

The Legislature yesterday reached final agreement on the "three R's" bill.

Since 1943, when a "sleeper" amendment of unrecalled origin sneaked into Ohio's school laws, Ohio schools have been required to teach nothing except American history and government.

Yesterday the Legislature approved a joint Senate-House conference committee compromise on the "three-R's" bill to put the law approximately back to where it was before 1943.

After months of haggling, the principal action of legislators was to change the law to read that schools "shall" teach the basic subjects instead of "may" teach.

These were yesterday's other major developments:

The Senate virtually complete legislative action on a House-approved bill requiring persons suffering from communicable tuberculosis to enter hospitals.

The Senate adopted and sent to the House two proposed contitutional amendments which would permit the Legislature to raise or lower salaries of judges and most public officials during their terms of office. The Constitution now bans any changes in these salaries during term.

The Senate defeated another proposed constitutional amendment which would have permitted the Legislature to raise or lower salaries of elected state officials from governor on down.

As originally presented, all three constitutional changes would have permitted increases during officials' and judges terms. But they would have retained the ban on salary reductions.

The compromise amendments which led to legislative agreement on the "three-R's" bill covered the "wet-dry" issue and the question of the educational background children should have before they are exposed to foreign "isms."

As the basic-subjects will passed the Senate, it provided schools may teach the "effect of excessive use of alcoholic beverages." That wording was changed to the "effects of the use of alcoholic beverages."

A Senate amendment had provided a full backgrounding of each child in American history and government before he might be taught such subjects as sociology, economics, foreign trade, United Nations and socialism and communism.

The compromise dropped economics and sociology from the list.

Another constitutional amendment is up for a Senate vote today. It provides for a bonus to veterans of the armed services during the period of the Korean conflict.

The proposal is for a 100-million-dollar bond issue to be repaid by a real estate tax. Some 286,000 veterans of the Korean War period were Ohio residents. They would be paid $10 a month for domestic service and $15 a month for overseas service with a maximum of $400 each.

The Korean bonus plan must receive a three-fifths favorable vote in each house before it may be submitted to Ohio voters next November.

426 More Children Get Shots

Polio Vaccine Given Kids Of 5 City Schools

A total of 426 first and second graders in the Washington C. H. schools received their first shots of Salk polio vaccine Thursday morning at centers in three of the city schools.

The number of children inoculated remained almost unchanged despite reports received Wednesday afternoon that six children in California had contracted polio after receiving shots of the vaccine.

Supt. W. A. Smith said he had heard no reports form any of the five city schools that parents had withdrawn permission for their children to receive the vaccine. He added, however, that school authorities were ready to honor any such requests.

At the Health Department, only two withdrawals from the program were reported. No reason was given in either case, according to Miss Gretchen Darlington, senior nurse for the Department.

The shots, the first of a two-shot series, were furnished without charge to all the youngsters whose parents gave permission. Cost of the vaccine was paid by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, with the nurses and lay workers contributing their services.

The second shots in the series will be given to all the county school youngsters on May 18 and to city school pupils on May 19.

* * *

FEW CHILDREN were absent absent from school Wednesday, when the county school children were inoculated, or Thursday when the city school children were shot, according to Miss Darlington. But for those few who were, a make-up clinic will be held Tuesday at the Health Department in the Court House.

Children are to report at 9 A. M. with their permission slips signed by their parents. Miss Darlington added that it would help expedite matters if each child's parents accompanied him.

The program laid out by the Health Department ran smoothly at all three centers, doctors reported. At Central School, where Dr. Joseph Herbert inoculated 201 children from Central, Rose Avenue and Cherry Hill schools, the entire group of youngsters got their shots in just 53 minutes.

Nurses and parents reported that there were almost no cases of children crying or pulling away from the needle. The same reports came from Eastside, where Dr. N. A. Dyer inoculated 120 kids in half an hour and from Sunnyside, where Dr. Robert Woodmansee shot 105 children in about an hour.

The speed with which the program was carried out shows how calmly most of the children took the experience. A few reports of children having "nervous stomachs" came in, but for the most part, the kids took their shots and accepted the lollipops with a cool air that astounded their elders.

Working by the sides of the doctors at the three centers were teams of nurses, teachers and lay workers, most of the latter volunteers from among the children's parents.

At East Side School, the workers were as follows: nurses—Mrs. Jef-

Garbage Collection Proposals Being Studied by City Council

Little business was transacted by city council Wednesday night, most of the time was spent in discussing garbage and trash collection.

Two men made applications for a franchise to collect garbage and trash in the city and council finally adjourned to go into another executive session, with indications the discussion would be continued there.

Lloyd Cartwright, requesting a franchise, said he had a large shed for paper, etc., and feeds hogs. He said he would obtain equipment for proper handling of the garbage and refuse.

City Manager James F. Parkinson stated that he had received a query from another man, offering to do the collecting at a figure less than usually paid for such work.

It developed that Leo Gilmore had made such an application some two weeks ago, but no announcement of the fact had been made.

* * *

GILMORE, who was waiting outside the council room, was called in and discussed the proposal with council for some time.

He said he had a large cooker, collected some garbage now, and would purchase a compressor or disposal truck of latest design for proper handling of garbage and waste material.

Council members, after hearing Gilmore and discussing the matter, decided there were still some phases of the proposal to be considered before definite action is taken.

Chief among these seems the many push cart owners and truckers are now collecting garbage and trash. A franchise given to one person or company, it was feared, might cut off the means of livlihood for these push carts and truckers.

Council adopted a resolution supporting House Bill No. 271, which would give the public utilities commission greater powers in dealing with rate cases.

City Manager Parkinson stated that the measure was being supported by the Ohio Municipal League.

Ike Puts Zhukov To Tough Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has posed a tough test of the power and good will of Soviet Marshal Georgi Zhukov, comrade-in-arms of 10 years ago.

Ever since Eisenhower became president there has been speculation that the friendly relationship which existed between the two men in the rule of occupied Germany might someday, in some way, help to bridge the gap between Moscow and Washington.

This speculation was stimulated last February when Zhukov stepped up to the post of defense minister after Nicolai Bulganin became premier.

Now the President has written Zhukov saying to him something like this:

"Why don't you help obtain the release from Red China of 15 American airmen held over from the Korean War. Why don't you persuade the Chinese Reds to let other Americans come home?"

That was the sense of what Eisenhower is reported to have written Zhukov about two weeks ago. At a news conference yesterday he declined to disclose the contents of the correspondence he said had taken place.

From other sources it was learned that Zhukov initiated the correspondence about three weeks ago with an appeal to the President to bring about the return to his parents of a Russian schoolboy who fled from East Berlin to West Berlin March 18.

The boy, Valery A. Lysikov, son of a lieutenant colonel in the Soviet air force, was returned April 9. U. S. authorities at Berlin announced he had decided he wanted to go home.

Zhukov had forwarded to the President a letter he received from Col. Lysikov. Zhukov had called the President a great humanitarian, according to a responsible account of the exchange, and said he knew the President would realize the anxiety of the family.

Immediately after the boy's return, Eisenhower wrote Zhukov calling it to his attention.

He added that he hoped Zhukov could realize the anxiety of people whose sons were being detained in jails in Red China

Such words, going from the President to a member of the Soviet government, constituted not only an appeal but a challenge. They raised the question whether Zhukov would want to do anything about Americans held in Red China, whether the Soviet government would agree, and whether Soviet influence would prove persuasive with Red China.

Dutch Give Nod To Paris Pacts By Wide Vote

West Europe Alliance Now Ready To Act Within NATO Setup

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP)—The Paris treaties cleared the final parliamentary hurdle today. The Dutch Senate approved the pacts, previously ratified by the legislatures of all 14 other countries affected, to rearm West Germany for Western defense.

The vote was 32-2. The Dutch House endorsed the treaties 71-6 March 30.

The West Germans expect the Allied occupation to end, and their sovereignty to be restored, early next month. Their enrollment in a seven nation Western European Union and in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization is planned for meetings scheduled to begin in Paris May 7.

All of NATO's present 14 members and West Germany signed one or more of the four Paris agreements. The pacts are to (1) end the Allied occupation while authorizing Allied troops to remain on duty inside Germany; provide for the Bonn Republic's armed partnership with the West in (2) WEU and (3) NATO; and (4) give WEU political control of the Saar, the German-speaking border state which has been linked economically to France since the war.

* * *

WITH FINAL parliamentary action on the pacts in all countries completed, they must be signed by the various chiefs of state and deposited in various capitals.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government is slated to build up an army, air force and navy totaling a half million men. German and Allied military experts calculate, however, it will take at least three years to make the West German armed forces combat-ready.

The three main factors affecting the speed of rearmament are:

1. The Germans have to start from scratch to create modern forces for the atom age. There's a serious shortage of qualified young officers and noncoms.

2. A mass of legislation is required to legalize the raising of armed forces.

3. The public is so reluctant to rearm that it will be politically impossible to put too much steam behind the drive until all possibility of a settlement with Russia has clearly disappeared.

The top limit for the West German forces is 500,000 men. They will be divided into 350,000 soldiers in 12 divisions, 85,000 airmen in a 1,300-plane tactical air force and 65,000 sailors in a small coastal navy.

At least nine major laws will be necessary to implement the Paris treaties in Germany.

* *

THE FIRST WILL be a "volunteer law" to establish a 150,000-man cadre for the armed forces. A conscription law will be needed to enable 350,000 men to be called up for 18 months training and then kept on reserve.

A new democratic military code is to replace the strict Prussian-style regulations of the past.

Powers to requisition land and property and raise funds for military purposes must be granted by parliament.

Parliament must decide the question of who is to be commander in chief, which is sure to stir controversy.

Parliamentary sources doubt this process can be completed much before the end of this year. That means the first recruits would be taken into service in 1956.

For all their services, there will be a cadre of 22,000 officers, 40,000 noncommissioned officers and 88,000 enlisted men. There is already doubt whether so many volunteers can be found.

Present plans for the army call for the creation of 12 skeleton divisions at first. In emergency these could be combined to make four full-strength divisions.

After about 18 months training, these divisions will be ready to take on strength through a draft.

It's Wanting What You Have That Counts

Most of us on various occasions have had to listen to some individuals who bemoan their fate and who expect all the rest of us to shed countless salty tears over their alleged troubles; in most of such cases that is just what they are—alleged troubles.

Unless we have learned to "roll with the punch," as the devotees of the fighting game would say, we waste a lot of time and energy in a huge majority of such cases. While greater difficulties and tragedies are often untold and hidden behind a brave smile by others, we listen to complaints and criticisms of these others whose main difficulty seems to be that they have to much time on their hands with nothing to do and they seem to enjoy that kind of living.

Maybe that is the reason that we hear more about and from them in the way of complaints than we do from the actual polio victims who smile through their misfortunes.

All this reminds us of that significant saying we often have read — "I complained because I had no shoes, until I met a man who had no feet." Cliches are trite — but you can't beat the trite for truth. We'll never have all that we desire. The meantime is the only time for happiness.

Lives weren't set merely to sail untossed seas. Wouldn't it be dull if they were? We'd never appreciate the satisfaction of a delicious meal were we not hungry — nor the release of a hearty laugh, had we not cried. Alternate rain storms and sun showers will always clutter life. Happiness is merely cheerful patience — sitting out the storm with a smile.

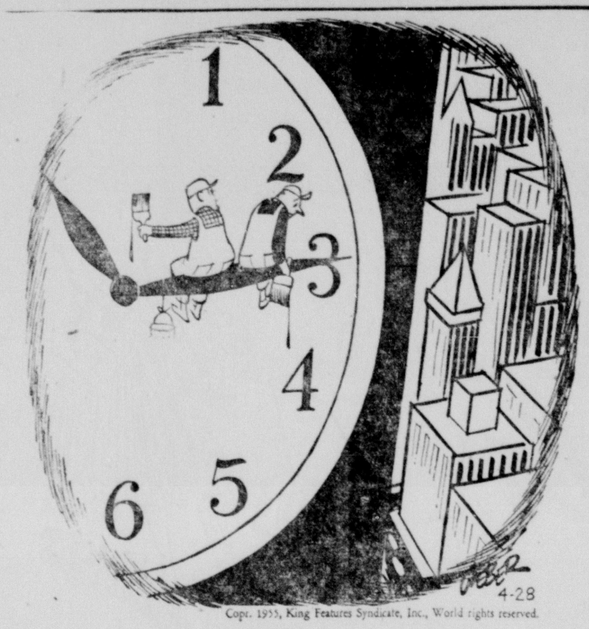

We can talk ourselves into believing it. We can convince ourselves by trusting in the sun's promise to shine again.

It takes energy to fret and explain troubles. Unless pity is the main objective, that energy can usually be used to erase the cause behind the complaint. We wonderhow many famous inventions were born of hunger; how many immortal writings resulted from a desperate last try, or how many celebrated paintings were painted with borrowed paint?

The search for happiness leads all others. It won't end until time ends, yet it's exactly like searching for spectacles when they're perched on top of our forgetful head. Happiness is right there all the time but we are so wrapped up in a thoughtless search that we've forgotten we're wearing it.

After all happiness is merely a state of mind. You'll never find it in having what you want — you have got to want what you have.

Breast-Feeding Baby What Nature Intended

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Most of you expectant mothers, I know, will want to nurse your babies. But before your infant is born, you'll undoubtedly hear neighbors and well-meaning friends tell you how much easier it is to bottle-feed a baby.

Breast Feeding Preferred

Don't listen to them. If you can, and not all mothers can, nurse your baby. Nature intended a baby to be nursed at his mother's breast. In addition to beig natural, it is the easiest and most inexpensive way to feed a baby.

As for work, why, you won't have to worry about making a feeding mixture, or sterilizing bottles, nipples and other utensils. Breast milk contains the right amount of the food elements your baby needs. And it is easy for him to digest because it forms small, finely divided curds in his stomach.

Contains More Iron

Breast milk is always ready to use. It is fresh, clean, warm and germ-free. It contains more iron than cow's milk. And this iron is absorbed and used four or five times better than the iron in cow milk.

Records of many cities show that sickness and death rates of bottle-fed babies are much higher than those who are nursed at the breast. I don't mean to imply that specially prepared milk mixtures aren't safe. They are, of course, if properly planned by your doctor.

Many Advantages

However, many doctors believe that a breast-fed baby has less chance of becoming ill and a much better chance of recovering if he does become ill. Severe diarrhea, for instance, seldom occurs.

Another argument in favor of breast-feeding is that it forms a closer bond between a mother and her baby. By holding and fondling her baby, a mother satisfies his innate need for love and affection.

Contrary to the belief of many, breast-feeding will not cause a mother's breasts to become flabby. Neither will it cause her to become fat. A mother's womb becomes enlarged during pregnancy. Many doctors believe that a baby's suckling is one of nature's ways of helping shrink the womb to its normal size and bring the mother's body back to normal proportions.

Answer: Hemorrhoids or piles are satisfactorily treated in most cases by means of operation. The injection treatment is helpful in certain instances.

Kentucky's Bourbon Helped

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—America introduced a secret weapon to win a draw with the Russians in an odd hospitality war fought along the Elbe River 10 years ago.

That weapon, it now may be revealed, was Kentucky's bottled breakfast of champions—100-proof bourbon.

As soon as the two Allied armies linked up, a number of celebrations were held. In the first flush of enthusiasm they were largely spontaneous get-togethers between small groups of individuals or officers from both armies, marked by cordiality and good will on both sides.

But as the parties went up, echelon by echelon, from division to corps to army level, the atmosphere subtly changed. The cordiality became formalized.

In this exchange of hospitality the Russians held a big edge. We wealthy Wall Street imperialists had little more than stern canned combat rations to offer. The simple virtuous peasant Soviet warriors, on the other hand, seemed to have a pipeline of plenty that led straight to Moscow. When they were hosts, the tables groaned with piles of caviar, fat cheeses, fresh cucumbers, all kinds of rich titbits you usually find only in expensive restaurants — and an endless number of carafes filled with vodka.

The Russians took a rude delight in trying to toast the Americans under the table. And it must be admitted that many of our men, worn down by months of clean living in the field, were ill-prepared to face the Soviet vodka barrage. As one officer remarked weakly after the 20-umpth toast:

"I thought Russian roulette was played with revolvers, not vodka glasses."

The lavishness reached its peak at a party thrown by Marshal Ivan Zonev, now Russian deputy minister of defense, for Gen. Omar Bradley and his staff.

Forewarned on the insidious impact of vodka, Bradley and his officers had guarded against it by swallowing quantities of canned milk and mineral oil.

Konev himself, a bald, powerfully built man, proved the first loophole in the Russian hospitality siege. He turned down the vodka and reached for a glass of white wine as an interpreter explained, "the marshal has stomach trouble."

Bradley, who is no drinking man himself, immediately switched to white wine, too, and had no trouble matching Konev toast for toast. Grinning, Bradley leaned over to a correspondent friend and whispered, "How'm I doing?" He was doing perfectly. So was his mineral-oil-fortified staff. They easily met the Russian officers on equal terms.

Following a tremendous repast a Red army chorus sang the "Star Spangled Banner," but apparently were safe from being corrupted by it as they had memorized the lyrics without understanding them.

A ballet troupe, obviously professional, then put on a splendid performance, but when Bradley praised the dancers, Konev merely remarked blandly:

"Just a few girls from the Red army."

When it came time for Bradley to hold a return courtesy party, a question arose over what liquid refreshments to offer.

"They served us their national drink," Bradley said, smiling. "We'll introduce them to one of ours—bourbon."

Although it was evident the Russian officers had been warned to be on their best behavior, two of them quickly wilted under the belting of bourbon toasts. After a polite snifter, Konev turned to his interpreter with a strained look and muttered, "too strong, too strong."

After dinner a violinist who had been specially flown there from Paris entertained the group. When Konev praised his playing as magnificent, Bradley replied with a straight face:

"Oh, it's really nothing. He's just one of our American soldiers."

The violinist happened to be a guy named Jascha Heifetz.

Ten years later, Bradley still feels that, thanks to bourbon and Heifetz, the Americans earned at least a draw in their hot hospitality war with the Russians on the river Elbe.

Red China's Chou and the Arabs

By George Sokolsky

Chou En-Lai of Red China is naturally playing up sweetly toward the Arabs who are attending the Bandung Conference. He has made friends with Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt and therefore he is now a declared enemy of Israel.

This is straight power politics because Israel is far from China, in no way affects the future of Red China, has no force that can combat the imperialism of Red China, and there are no Jews in Chou En-Lai's country.

There used to be a Jewish colony in Kaifeng that settled there sometime about the year 210, although some authorities give an earlier date. Their story is much of a mystery but it is known from tombstones and other steles that about 70 Jewish families came into China from Persia, who petitioned the emperor for a place to live and they were given an area along the Yellow River in the province of Honan. There they built a synagogue and they undoubtdly lived according to the mosaic ritual because there is a lane in Kaifeng called "Sinew Pluckers Street" which shows that these people prepared their meats to make them Mosher. Jews are called Yu Tai Jen in Chinese.

The remains of that synagogue were still evident when I lived in China and the property was owned by the Canadian mission of the Anglican church. Most of the Jews had become Mohammedans of whom there are many in Honan and Shantung provinces. There are, however, existing Jewish communities in Turkestan, the most famous of which is in Khotan.

Israel finds itself squeezed between the Western powers and Red China, both groups playing for Arab support. The United Nations, as an institution, commits itself against the State of Israel on account of border troubles but it does nothing of an consequence about the more than 500 Americans held prisoner in Red China. The United Nations makes a tremendous fuss over the Gaza incident but not about 15 American flyers who fought in a United Nations "police action."

In a word, the United Nations does not pursue a course of action based upon international law or a code of conduct set up to guide small nations in one way and with the large nations in another and avoiding action when no results can be obtained.

This may be the easiest way to follow to avoid the disintergration of the United Nations but it is not good law. Chou En-Lai and the Arabs understand this weakness of the United Nations and are taking full advantage of it.

The State of Israel is one of the few nations omitted from the Asiatic-African conference. Israel was not omitted because it is a Western power in Asia; it was excluded because the Arabs objected to its presence. Actully, Israel includes Asiatic and African Jews, native Palestinians, Yemenites, Egyptian and Moroccan Jews, the Falashas of Ethiopia, the B'nei Israel from India and many others. Apart from geography, this ethnological diversity, even on a color basis, should have entitled Israel to attend this conference. Do those who complain against racial discrimination practise it?

Nehru, the upholder of racial equality, surely should have sponsored Israel. His own relations with Moslem Pakistan have never been cordial. But Nehru too is courting the Arabs, because numbers count and Israel is without support anywhere among the great nations. And it is without support because it is small and its very existence is offensive to the Arabs who are the real third power in the world today. The only solution to this problem is an Israel-Arab conference settling all their outstanding problems.

In this situation Israel is in real peril. The Arabs are determined that the State of Israel should die. Egypt fought Israel and was defeated on the field of battle. This umbrage, the Egyptians will never forget and Egypt remains, for the present, the focal point of Arab politics and intrigue. Great economic and religious forces come into play in this situation even in the United States and Great Britain where vested interests are vitally affected. If oil were discovered in Israel, maybe the situation would be different, but as it stands the story is, as it has been for 2,000 years, Israel stands alone.

Top Publisher Hopes Wilson Halts Censors

NEW YORK (AP)—The head of the American publishers expressed hope today that Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson will "see the error in his recent resort to censorship" in the Pentagon.

Richard W. Slocum, president of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn., criticized "the ever-present urge to censorship and a limiting of news sources." Slocum is executive vice president of the Philadelphia Bulletin. He said:

"Our problem sometimes lies more with the high-principled, loyal and conscientious public servant who just does not realize that full operation of the people's right to know is more important than any single decision.

"We shall hope that our well-intentioned secretary of defense will quickly see the error in his recent resort to censorship in an effort to check alleged secret leaks."

Wilson told a Washington news conference April 12 that he tightened Defense Department rules on giving out military information to keep potential enemies from leaning too much, but insisted his directive was not censorship.

Slocum said this year is a time for an accounting of the newspapers as "trustees of a fundamental freedom—the people's right to know."

For Prevention Of Accidents At Crossings

This Week Set Aside For Special Warning To All Drivers

April 24 to 30 is Highway Railroad crossing accident Prevention Week in Ohio by proclamation of Governor Lausche and the mayors of many municipalities.

In his proclamation the Governor mentioned that 5 lives a month have been saved since special emphasis has been given to this phase of highway safety.

113 persons died in collisions between motor vehicles and railroad trains in this state last year. Yet this was the best year in the 16 for which records are available.

Henri Marc, President, Ohio State Safety Council, said: "Nearly one-third of these people died because the auto in which they were riding struck the train that was already on the crossing. Almost as many drove on the tracks, stalled their car and could not get out before the collision took place.

"There is no other type of traffic accident where the motorist can so completely control matters himself. Trains can't hit autos that stop at crossings when a train is approaching.

"Ohio law requires a driver to stop when an electrical or mechanical signal or a flagman indicates that a train is coming. A good many of the grade crossing accidents would not occur if drivers obeyed this part of the law."

The railroads of the state will be observing crossings throughout the week, alert for violations of this section of the motor vehicle code. Marc says that enforcement officials, vehicle fleets, and publicity media arrre assisting the Council a the Ohio Department of Highway Safety in the program.

Many railroad speakers will appear before civic groups and hundreds of teachers of Driver Education classes will give special emphasis to proper cautious approach to railroad crossings.

The Department of Highway Safety is issuing a special poster that will be given wide distribution.

He said "Any time is train time on any track. We saved 5 lives a month because more drivers are more careful in approaching and crossing railroad tracks. But we are still losing ten lives a month because some people don't seem to realize that trains still use the tracks.

"We can save another five lives if only a few more people recognize that there's no sense in racing a train to a crossing."

By W. A. SMITH
(City School Superintendent)

We are continuing today the Board of Education's policies on Pupils' Admission and Assignment:

Section 7.1 Age for admission to first grade: Children within the Washington Court House City School district reaching six years of age on or before the dates in the following years: October 31, 1955, September 30, 1956, shall be admitted to the first grade at the beginning of such school year beginning in September.

Section 7.2 Determination of age: The presentation of a birth certificate or other satisfactory proof of age shall be required of each child upon admission to the Washington Court House City Schools.

Section 7.3 Vaccination: No child who has neither been successfully vaccinated nor had smallpox shall be permitted to attend any school within the Washington Court House School District.

Section 7.4 Assignment of pupils: Pupils shall be assigned to each of the buildings by the Superintendent of schools according to the school district boundaries adopted by the board of education. No pupil shall be allowed to enter or remain in a school out of his district except by special permission of the superintendent of schools. In case of removal from one school district to another within the city during any semester, parents may continue to send their children to school they may have attended at the time of removal until the end of the current semester, or year.

Section 7.5 Transfer of pupils: Pupils may be transferred from one room to another or from one building to another whenever necessary by reason of promotion, overcrowding, change of residence, or for such other reasons as the superintendent may deem sufficient.

Section 7.6 Transportation: Transportation will not be provided for pupils living within two miles of the elementary school to which they have been assigned or within two miles of the elementary school to which they have been assigned or within four miles of the high school which they attend unless they have been specifically authorized to ride by the superintendent of schools.

744 Persons Draw Total Of $42,729

During April 744 aged pensioners in Fayette County drew a total of $42,729 with $2,313.42 additional for health care.

The average amount paid to those on the rolls in Fayette County was $57.43, which was somewhat above the state average. Payments run all the way from an average of 52.21 in Belmonst County, to $58.36 in Knox County.

There was little change in the number of persons drawing public pay in April compared with the number in March.

Legend has it that potato chips started at Saratoga Springs, N. Y. when an angry cook tried to serve French fried potatoes that were too thin to eat.

CHANGES

Changes come to everything-
Human beings, places, life;
Youth to age, just a short space,
Can be severed as by knife;
Places known are torn away-
Other places take their place;
Life goes on but changing too
And it goes at swifter pace;
Changes here and changes there,
Peaceful days are gone for good;
Rush, hurry to go somewhere,
Now, is all that is understood,

1919 Penny Deal Is Almost Fatal

UTICA, N.Y. (AP)—Fred Schwender went into the appliance business in 1919. He celebrated his 36th anniversary yesterday.

To publicize the event, he announced that anyone who brought in a 1919 penny would receive 36 cents in trade.

Coin collector Arthur Repple rummaged through 40,000 coins and found 878 such pennies. He swapped them for a refrigerator. Said Schwender:

"I'm glad I didn't say $36."

DOWN GOES THE OLD ST. ANDREW'S EPISCOPAL Church on East Street. First step in the wrecking process was stripping the siding and interior. Then a cable from the wrecking car at left was wrapped around the building and the wrecker's winch pulled the old landmark down with a stranglehold. Seconds after this picture was taken, the church was nothing but a tumbled mass of lumber, looking much more like a giant pile of jack straws than anything that ever had been "The Little Church around the Corner." (Record-Herald photo)

'Neighborhood Friends' To Meet at Grace Church

A comprehensive citywide organization set up by the Methodists today was about ready to take its first big step toward spreading the influence of Grace Church.

Monday night, a meeting that is to be known as a "Neighborhood Friends Mixer" is to be held in Fellowship Hall of the Church.

A letter that has been sent out to about 50 "Neighborhood Friends" sounds the keynote of this new church-expansion project with this paragraph:

"This is a meeting planned strictly for fun and entertainment and getting acquainted. There will be no soliciting of money, nor will anyone be asked to do anything except have a good time."

The letter, which was sent to the leaders in the affair says this meeting is designed to bring together not only members of the church, but all friends of Grace Church.

The leaders are told in the letter to invite "those on your list and anyone who is or may beome a friend of the church."

The letter says high school age children" will enjoy our entertainment" and adds that "for the younger children we will have movies in another room."

The meeting is to start at 8 o'clock Monday night when dessert will be served, and the letter promises that "the meeting will be over early."

* * *

TO LAY THE groundwork for this new venture in church build-up, chairmen were named for each ward and then leaders for each precinct who were to organize the neighborhoods.

The purpose, one of the moving spirits explained, was for the leaders to call on the Neighborhood Friends, to explain Methodism to them and invite them to attend Grace Church if they are Methodists or have no church affiliations; if they belong to another church, they are to suggest that they attend their own church or the church of their choice.

It was made plain, however, that the Neighborhood Friends are not proselyting when they invite newcomers to worship at Grace Church.

Chairman of the first ward is Mrs. C. E. Eckle, of the second ward, Mrs. John F. Dial, of the third ward, Mrs. Harold Craig and the fourth ward Mrs. W. R. Everhart.

Fried Chicken Is in Prospect

Poultry Prices Take Sharp Drop

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Frying chickens will offer outstanding value for shoppers in the nation's food stores this weekend.

After rising sharply at wholesale for the past several months, there was a definite downturn this week in the price of the birds, and most retailers plan to make fryers their No 1 feature. Prices will be down as much as six cents a pound from a week ago.

"Frying chicken prices are getting back to normal again," commented one meat specialist. "And they may go a little lower next week."

Looking ahead to May, the U.S. Department of Agriculture notes that supplies of broilers and fryers are expected to average two per cent larger than a year ago. The USDA remarks that fried chicken is a picnic favorite and that barbecued chickens are popular in early summer.

Shoppers will also find a broad selection of beef cuts among advertised specials for the weekend. Items mentioned by a number of markets include prime ribs, pot roast, round roast, round steak and corned beef.

Legs of lamb will be featured in a number of markets, but in most sections of the country, prices will be unchanged from a week ago. In the pork line, there will be specials here and there on smoked hams and fresh picnics. Lower prices on veal shoulder roast and legs and rumps of veal were mentioned by a few stores.

Egg prices may be lower in your market. Reductions of two to four cents a dozen are being made in many areas.

Are you eating more shrimp these days? Someone is. The Shrimp Assn. of the Americas reports that during the first two months of this year, Americans consumed more than 21 million pounds of shrimp. In the same two months a year earlier, the figure was only 14 million pounds.

There's lots of variety on the vegetable counters. Onions are cheap, although quality is mosty ordinary to fair. An exception is the new crop Texas onion, which sells at a slightly higher price.

Spinach, cabbage and nearby greens such as radishes, kale, rhubarb and leeks offer good value, too. Produce men also favor escarole, endive, corn, asparagus, carrots, small and medium peppers, old crop potatoes, beets, celery, iceberg lettuce, cucumber, squash and beans. The quality of beans is improving.

The best buys in fruits are the old standbys — oranges, grapefuit and apples. Strawberries are a little lower than a week ago because supplies are increasing

WCH Lions Club Convention Host

Sub-District Meet In Dayton Sunday

Nearly half of the members of the Washington C. H. Lions Club today had their sights set on Dayton where they plan to go Sunday to take part in the sub-district convention of Lions Clubs in this 13-C district.

DONALD J. GIBSON

This is not just a run-of-mine convention for Washington C. H. Lions; they have a major part in it because, since one of their fellow club members, Don Gibson, is the district governor, the Washington C. H. club takes the role of convention host.

Just what the role of host will involve and what will be expected of the Washington C. H. Lions is still somewhat obscure, but one thing is certain, they will be right in the middle of whatever is going on at the convention.

FINIS E. DAVIS

Gibson will be in charge of the business part of the meeting which is scheduled to get underway at 2 P. M. At this session members and officers of the 51 clubs will be present and all cabinet officers of the eight-county district will report on the year's activities.

The ladies of the Lions Club members are invited to the convention and a special program has been arranged for their enjoyment during the afternoon.

Dr. Dan J. V. Martin of Greenville, International Director from Ohio will introduce Director Davis.

District Governor Gibson will award district contest prizes at the dinner. The awards will go to the club with the best secretary report, bulletin editor and to the club with the best attendance record.

Music during the dinner will be by Pete Wilson's band, currently playing in the Kitty-Hawk room of the Biltmore.

In announcing the speaker for the banquet Gibson said Lion Davis is Superintendent of the American Printing House for the Blind, and a member of the Board of Directors of the American Association of Workers for the Blind. In 1952 Davis was a U. S. delegate to the world conference on education of blind youth which was held at Bussum in the Netherlands.

Ohioan Gets Post

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Raymond Brenner of Youngstown, Ohio, yesterday was elected to a six-year term on the national board of the Young Women's Christian Assn.

Ronald W. Sears

Ronald W. Sears, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sears, has received the initiatory and DeMolay degrees in the Circleville Chapter of the Order of DeMolay. Ronnie, who is 16, has been a busy young man for the last seven years with his school and farming activities. He has been in 4-H club work since he was in the fourth grade and also has been active in the Methodist Youth Fellowship, Jeffersonville chapter of Future Farmers and the high school chorus and band. He is president of the Jeffersonville High School junior class and sentinel of the FFA. He was a delegate to the National FFA convention and is a member of the Junior Fair Board. DeMolay is a fraternal order sponsored by master Masons.

Trash Pick-up From Streets Early Friday

With the annual "Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up" week here half gone, plans for the pick-up on Friday after the clean-up for four days today were all set at the City Hall.

When City Manager James F. Parkinson proclaimed this week as 'Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up Week" he also made arrangements for the part the city would play in the event.

With the Chamber of Commerce cooperating by handling the calls, the city manager has assigned truks to make the rounds of the city, street by street, to pick up trash that has been gathered up during the previous four days.

Because the city trucks have been in constant use in the street maintenance program and development of the park along Millikan Avenue, Clyde Smith, the superintendent of the street crew, said it would simplify the pick-up if the trash is placed in containers and set out in plain sight along the street curbs.

He emphasized the importance of placing the bundles and boxes of trash at the curbs early Friday morning. Because of the urgent need for the trucks, he pointed out, that it would be next to impossible to make many special calls.

City officials have suggested that people who have trash to be picked up and want to make certain it is not overlooked should call the Chamber of Commerce and give their addresses. However, it was pointed out, it will still be necessary to get it on the curb early to be on the safe side.

X-Ray Unit In Use

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has developed a portable X-ray unit for battlefield use powered by a two-inch container of radioactive thulium. It weighs 48 pounds.

Ike's Trade Bill Given OK By Panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower was given a foreign trade bill without major changes, but it still faces a tough floor battle.

The committee approved the bill late yesterday 13-2. Senators Kerr (D-Okla) and Malone (R-Nev) were the only dissenters.

Chairman Byrd (D-Va) hailed the vote as a sign the bill could be put through the Senate without damaging amendments.

Nevertheless, sponsors of administration- opposed amendments rejected in the committee laid plans to carry the battle to the floor. Debate may begin Monday.

This was particularly true of senators who seek relief from import competition for specific commodities. One powerful lineup favors a sharp cutback on oil shipments into this country.

The Senate committee preserved, as the House had done on close votes in passing the bill earlier, the key powers sought by the President. These are a three-year extension of the 21-year-old reciprocal trade pacts law and new authority for the President to cut tariffs 15 per cent. The law gives the President power to reduce import duties in exchange for similar concessions from other nations.

Youngster Given Two Polio Shots

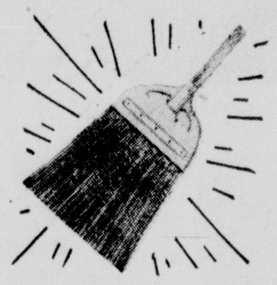

BALTIMORE (AP)—Seven-year-old Diane Weaver got her polio shot and a lollipop at Dundalk Elementary School and then stood by to see how the other youngsters took the inoculation. Before she could make the grownups understand, she had been injected a second time. She suffered no ill effects.

Akron's Rubber Growth Stalled

AKRON (AP)—The rubber industry is growing, but not in Akron, the B. F. Goodrich Co. said yesterday.

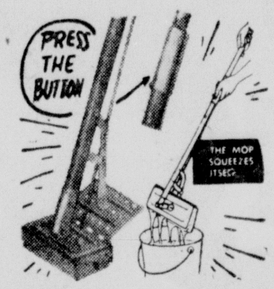

Summit County production workers number the same now as they did in 1919, and the county now employes only 19 per cent of the rubber workers in the country, compared with one-third of all rubber industry employes in 1919.

It's really quite easy to be a smart beef buyer.

Just check these three things before you buy.

1. Be sure the beef is U.S. Government Graded.
2. Be sure it's cut properly — with excess bone and fat removed before it's weighed. Don't pay for waste.
3. Be sure the beef is tender. How? That's easy. Just buy Kroger Tenderay Beef. Kroger Tenderay is guaranteed tender every time.

FAMILY PORTRAIT 1955

YEAR-ROUND FAMILY FAVORITE — That's GET UP! Just look at this intimate family scene around the TV set. There's little Nancy with a GET UP clutched tightly in her hand. And young Jimmy can watch the entire show because GET UP lasts so long. Big sister Cinthy loves the pretty new GET UP bottle design with its style and party flair for smart teen-age entertaining. And her crowd loves that luscious GET UP flavor. Mother? She's delighted by the low calory count in GET UP . . . among the lowest of all soft drinks. Dad surveys the scene placidly, as all Dads do. He's glad GET UP is so thrifty—and it makes a wonderful mixer, too! Yes, here's a happy family . . . a family with GET UP!

Prominent Local Bottler Introduces New Soft Drink

New "Get Up" Makes Sensational Debut Here

Modern Trend To Lightness

Get Up, New King Size Soft Drink, Features Low Calories

"In step with modern trends to lighter foods, beverages and figures—that's streamlined new low-calory GET UP," reports Herbert Paige, quality control director of the Get Up Corporation of America.

Paige's report shows that the calory content in tasty GET UP is among the lowest in the soft drink field. Paige explained, "It's sweet enough to taste good and give quick energy. At the same time, its low-calory count prevents you from adding excess weight."

Paige's report reflects opinions of doctors throughout the country.

"You feel better, look better and live longer by avoiding excess weight," Paige pointed out. "That's why millions of modern Americans 'count calories' today—and stay healthier.

"Pleasantly plump figures went out with the horse and buggy," quipped Paige. "Low-calory GET UP is as modern as the jet age."

He pointed out that people can drink GET UP safely without adding excess pounds. "It allows you to get more enjoyment out of a soft drink, and still remain stylish."

Herbert Paige

King Size Drink Holds 2 Big Glassfuls, 12 Full Ounces, In Each Party-Flair Bottle!

WASHINGTON C. H., O. — This city has been chosen for the local premiere of a sensational new beverage — GET UP! Harold Schottenstein, president of Get Up Bottling Co. of Columbus, announced the debut of the new low-calory soft drink today.

GET UP, he pointed out, "is a streamlined sparkling drink. It's today's finest soft drink in the exciting new King Size bottle."

He predicted widespread popularity for the new beverage.

"Men, women, boys and girls want more for their money," he said. "We know that for a fact . . . look at what's happened in the cola field!

"In new GET UP", he explained, "we've increased the size of the traditional soft drink from an ordinary seven ounces to a huge 12 ounces—or two big glasses. So GET UP is among the biggest soft drinks on the market.

"Secondly," he continued, "GET UP is a grand year-round drink. It has a distinctive new flavor—fresh and exciting from your very first sip. It's a quick energy soft drink that children love. Or you can serve GET UP as a sparkler for mixed drinks."

Citing the trend in modern beverages toward streamlining, he said GET UP is lower in calory content.

Harold Schottonstein

It has one of the lowest calory counts in the soft drink field," he stated. "That means it'll appeal to weight-conscious people—active, modern women and too-busy-to-keep-trim business men."

GET UP comes in 32-ounces full quart family size bottles and in the new King Size 12-ounce bottles—six to a carton. As an introductory offer, local dealers are giving a carton of six 12-ounce bottles of GET UP for only 6c with the purchase of another carton at regular price! Customers are urged to see their dealers for delicious new GET UP!

'Get Up' Finds Favor With Local Women

During GET UP taste tests throughout this area, the following reactions to new GET UP beverage were reported to your inquiring photographer:

Mrs. Mary Devereaux: "Our teen-age children have many week-end parties, after-school get-togethers and record and TV sessions. The kids tried GET UP at their last party and they loved it. It's so economical—12 big ounces in every King Size bottle."

Mrs. Barbara Alexander: "Almost every girl in our set is calory conscious nowadays. For parties, it's often a problem what to serve. From now on it'll be GET UP — the low calory count is a delight to weight watchers. We like the big King Size bottle for home social gatherings!"

Mrs. Catherine Robinson: "GET UP was the most popular beverage at a party held recently. Guests raved about its sparkle and long lasting pep. And isn't that new bottle attractive? Its unusual design graces any table setting."

'Big Future' in Get Up Local Dealers Predict

Local dealers predict phenomenal popularity for new GET UP beverage.

"It's the finest soft drink in the big two-glass bottle," said local dealer. "Yet the price is almost the same as for other brands in smaller bottles. Housewives like that kind of economy."

Other dealers report they have stocked big supplies of new GET UP in King Size 6 packs and full quarts in anticipation of the rush for GET UP.

Customers who don't find GET UP at their favorite stores are urged to have their dealers contact the Get Up Bottling Co., of Columbus, Phone CApitol 8-4331.

"Real Cool Soft Drink," Hep Teen-Agers Report!

"Man, dig that cool new King Size GET UP! It's the most!"

That's the reaction of teen-ager Edna Foore. If you don't "dig" what Edna was talking about, neither did your reporter. But Edna went on to explain that GET UP is the newest soft drink rage with her school crowd.

"You have to get with this cra-a-azy new drink," chirruped Edna. "We tried it at our hen club session and the chicks cooed it was real gone. Our allowances and baby-sitting fees go 'way farther when we buy GET UP!"

"Whenever we have a ball," Edna confided, "the crowd screams —but nervous—for GET UP. It gives you lots of pep and that cute party bottle with all the white circles is a real gasser!"

Edna Foore

With that your reporter vaulted into his Straight-8 iron, jetted back to the City Room, lit up a nail, dug the Dictionary of Modern slang, and had himself a 12-ounce bottle of that real gone GET UP!

Get Up Rates Public Acclaim In Cities Throughout Nation!

Both in the public market place and within the American bottling industry, GET UP has achieved sensational popularity, approval and acceptance, according to a report by Julius Darsky, president of the Get Up Corporation of America.

"At the national premiere of GET UP in Dayton, O., in the spring of 1954, Americans fell in love with GET UP," Darsky stated. "Since then, public approval has been unanimous in scores of cities. Beverage distributors everywhere are vying for franchises to produce the new soft drink.

"At the 1954 Soft Drink Industry Convention in Philadelphia," he added, "tremendous strides forward were made to help bring GET UP into every American community, store and home.

"The public has shown its appreciation for this sensational new King Size beverage," he stated. "GET UP has achieved a position of prestige on the tables of America's most distinguished hostesses!"

Juilus Darsky

Designer Stresses Modern Styling

"Superb styling!" "Modern as tomorrow!" These are a few of the comments heard at the local preview of the new GET UP bottle design.

F. Eugene Smith, of design consultants Smith and Scherr, created the distinctive new GET UP bottle.

"We approached it from both functional and stylistic viewpoints," said Smith. "Other drinks were single-glass size. We needed a large, smart two-drink 12-oz. container, in keeping with the quality, sparkle and larger size of GET UP. The champagne bottle shape fits the bill. It's smoothly tapered from body to crown . . . classically elegant, yet distinctly modern!

"The bright GET UP labels and white circles on the bottle have the clean-cut rhythm of modern art," Smith explained. "All in all, the GET UP container is a smart design for modern living."

Lions Beat Wilmington In Return Baseball Tilt

The WHS Lions got revenge, and how, for their defeat in the first game of the baseball season when they trounced Wilmington's Hurricane, 7 to 1, at the Circle Avenue field here Wednesday afternoon behind the two-hit pitching Robinett.

The Lions were never in danger with Robinett fanning 12 of the visitors and giving up only two bases on balls.

Although the Wilmingtonians made four errors, they did not play a very important part in the Lions victory.

The Lions put across 2 runs in the second inning when Mickle, who drew a base on balls and Grooms, who got on when he was hit by a pitched ball, scored on a sharp single over shortstop by Anders, the first of his two hits.

They added two more in the third frame when Robinett got a hit and scored on Grooms' lusty triple and Grooms scored on Anders' second hit of the game.

Horney opened the fourth frame with a single and scored on an error on Robinett's grounder.

The Lions got their last run in the sixth when Horney led off with a double and came home on Mickle's single.

The victory over the Hurricane not only gave the Lions revenge for their 9-7 defeat in the opener, but gave them a record of 4 wins against only two loses.

They have two more games on their regular schedule, one with Greenfield and one with Circleville. Besides, they are planning to go to the district tournament this weekend.

The Lions of WHS will play Bexley's Lions here May 5 in their first game of the district tourney. In the drawings that were held at Columbus Wednesday evening, the Washington C. H. outfit drew a first round bye; that means the Lions will play only four tourney games — May 5, 9, 11 and 13 — while the others play five.

All games except the final, which is to be played on the Ohio State University field, are to be played on the home lots of the different schools. Teams entered are from Hilliards, Grandview, London, Circleville, Newark and five Columbus schools. North, East, West, St. Charles and Rosary, besides Bexley and Washington C. H.

Rookie Helps Indians Win Lengthy Game

CLEVELAND (AP) — Rookie first baseman Joe Altobelli, who says its "just faith and luck" that's kept him with the Cleveland Indians this long, is hoping now for a permanent job

The 23-year-old 6-footer, who doubled and scored the winning run in yesterday's 17-inning 6-5 victory over Washington, says he'd "sure like to stay."

Manager Al Lopez, who must drop three players by May 11, says:

"Altobelli's with the club. We haven't decided who we're going to drop Altobelli's been looking good in the field, but he hasn't been hitting until today."

The Indians were ready to send Altobelli to their Indianapolis farm two weeks ago. But they decided to take him to Detroit, his hometown, so he could see his wife and child before going to Indianapolis.

Although the left - handed first baseman has been shining in the field, he was hitting only .154 until yesterday. He got two singles and a double yesterday in seven times at bat to boost his average to .200.

Yesterday's 4 hour and 46 minute game was just 12 minutes short of an American League record. Early Wynn, making his first start, was responsible for all five Washington runs. He was relieved in the seventh, when the Nats tied the game at 5-5. Don Mossi, Ray Narleski Bill Wight and Art Houtteman gave shutout pitching.

WHS Golfers Lose Close One

Improvement Noted In Play of Lions

Washington C. H. High School's golf team, coached by Bill McCullough, lost a close decision here Wednesday to the Eagles of Dayton Chaminade 9-7.

Even in defeat the Lions were an improved team, and McCullough is optimistic that his swingers are going to give somebody an argument before long. Three of his boys broke 50 and Fred Cahall came in with a 39-best score of the day.

"If we can get one more boy down in the low 40's," McCullough explained, "we'll be sitting pretty good."

He described Chaminade's club as on a par with the excellent Chillicothe team which swamped the Lions in their last outing. The country club's 9-hole course was in near perfect shape.

Cahall picked up four points followed by Dick Dawson with a 42 for 2½ points, Roger McClain 46 for a half point, and Fred Bellas with a 50 for no points.

The victors all broke 50. Low men with 43s were Noland 1½ points and Reynolds 3½ points. Kauflin carded a 44 for four points and McBeth finished with a 46 and no points.

McCullough was defeated in a courtesy match 36-42 by the Eagle coach Danny O'Brien, a former Washington C. H. boy.

OSU Grid Ticket Sale Plan Set Up

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio State University has its football ticket sale plans all set for 1955.

George R. Staten, director of ticket sales, said Ohio States ticket prices are the lowest in the major college field and that no change in the rate will be made.

Students, faculty, alumni association members and benefactors of the university, visiting team followers and the general public will be served in that order under the ticket priority system.

Jim Ewell, trainer of the Kansas City Athletics, was once the batboy for the Norfolk Tars in the Piedmont League.

In 1927 when Babe Ruth hit his record 60 home runs, 20 of them were hit off left handed pitchers.

Charles Upset By John Holman

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—They all the Miami Beach Auditorium "Upset Arena" because so many well-known fighters are beaten there One of the most popular victims is Ezzard Charles.

Last night, an unrated, 27-year-old Negro from Chicago, John Holman, launched a thunderous surprise attack in the ninth round to stop Charles, a 4-1 favorite, on a technical knockout.

Referee Eddie Coachman stopped the fight at 2:48 of the ninth after Holman had nailed Charles with three straight solid rights to the head and seemed on the verge of putting the ex-champ down for good.

Ohio Fishing Condition Said To Be 'Poor'

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio fishing enthusiasts have been given little hope of catching that "big one" this weekend

The state division of wildlife said yesterday lake and stream conditions will be poor over the weekend. Division specialists reported that most waterways are muddy because of recent heavy rains.

By districts, here's a breakdown of lake and stream forecasts:

NORTHWESTERN Outlook poor. Lake St. Marys is rather clear, and some crappies and cat fish are being taken. Weekend outlook there is fair. Oxbow Lake in Defiance County is likewise clear and normal with some bass and bluegills being taken. Most streams are roily, muddy and high.

SOUTHEASTERN — Best two fishing lakes seem to be Burr Oak in Athens County and Alma in Vinton County, where bass, bluegills and catfish are being caught in good numbers. Most of the streams are roily to muddy with little change expected for the weekend.

CENTRAL—Such favorite spots as Delaware Reservoir and Jackson and Buckeye lakes are roily, but considerable numbers of fish have been taken during the past week. Outlook for these lakes is fair. Some central Ohio streams, such as Wetstone, Olentangy, Alum and Big Walnut, are in ffair condition. Rocky Fork Lake in Highland County, which has produced some fine catches of muskies and smallmouth bass during the past few weeks, is clear in the lower part of the lake, but the upper part is in rather poor fishing condition.

SOUTHWESTERN — Kiser, Decker, Swift Run, Echo and Indian lakes are clear and normal and good fishing is anticipated for the coming weekend. Most of the streams in this section, however, are roily, muddy and high, and little fishing success is expected.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Underground Enemies of Plants

By DEAN HALLIDAY
Distributed by Central Press Association

SOME insects spend their entire life cycle under the ground, while others live only part of their lives beneath the soil's surface.

The underground enemies of plants attack them at or below the surface of the ground. Gall insects, various worms, root maggots and root aphids are examples of these underground enemies.

Wireworms are one of the most destructive soil insects. They feed on the roots of vegetables and grasses, phlox and asters. They also attack gladiolus and dahlia tubers, as shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph.

Infested plants soon take on a sickly appearance and sometimes wilt and die. Upon pulling up such plants the roots will be found to have been eaten by wireworms. Seeds sometimes fail to grow because wireworms have eaten the germ.

Wireworms are the larvae of the click beetle. They are dark brown in color and one-half to 1½ inches long. The general appearance of one is shown in the Garden-Graph.

Wireworms may be controlled by treating the soil with lindane (benzene hexachloride), or the increasingly popular chlordane. Follow the directions given, according to the nature of your garden soil.

Wireworms can also be trapped through their own greediness, since they are fond of fresh carrots, potatoes or beets. Slices of any of these vegetables can be buried 2 to 3 inches deep in the soil. Use a small stick to mark the spot. In a few days dig up the bait and destroy the wireworms. Repeat with fresh bait.

9 Major Bills Up For Vote In Legislature

$5½ Million School Aid Bill Tops List Before Ohio Solons

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's legislators adjourn for the weekend today after voting on nine bills, including an emergency measure appropriating more than 5½ million dollars to enable the state to meet its school subsidy bill this year.

Because of a big increase in school enrollment, the state was $5,860,000 short in school subsidy funds for the two-year fiscal period ending June 30 The bill by Rep. J. Frank McClure (R-Ashland) appropriates that much out of the state treasury surplus.

The Senate yesterday approved and sent to the House a proposed amendment to the Ohio Constitution providing a 100-million-dollar bond issue to pay a state bonus to members of the armed forces during the Korean conflict.

The Senate vote was unanimous, 30-0. Three-fifths of the elected members of the House must concur before the question can be placed on the election ballot next November for approval of the voters.

Actual cost of the bonus is estimated at 80 million dollars. Eligible Ohioans probably will number 286,000. Eligible survivors may number about 1,900.

Payments would be based on $10 a month for domestic service and $15 a month for overseas service during the Korean War emergency.

Two Republicans—Sens. William Tyrrell of Preble County and Lowell Fess of Greene County—sponsored the bonus proposal.

Other major actions yesterday:

The Senate passed and sent to the House a bill, over Democratic objections, to make permanent the liberalization of state law on employment of women and minors originally adopted as a World War II emergency.

The House passed and sent to the Senate two bills covering student housing at the six state universities. One permits construction of dormitories on state-owned campuses for married students instead of single students only. The other continues until mid-1961 permission for state universities to operate temporary living quarters intended originally for war veterans.

The House also passed and sent to the Senate a bill to allow sale of milk in ¾-pint containers on grounds such containers would increase milk sales.

The House Elections and Federal Relations Committee recommended House passage of a proposed constitutional amendment for a 150-million-dollar bond issue to finance construction of mental institutions and schools in financially-pressed school districts. The vote was 12-1.

Store 'Inspectors' Actually Thieves

PORTSMOUTH (AP) — Two men, posing as electrical inspectors, carted away merchandise valued at $3,000 from the Atlas Fashion's Women's Wear store while employes were at a staff meeting yesterday.

Mortan Atlas, a firm member, said a number of employes talked to the men as they roamed the building. Atlas said he asked them if they wanted to buy the store because of the way they eyed it. They said no.

The loot included 10 cashmere coats and 14 fur coats.

Two Bound Over For Auto Thefts

Youth Admits Theft In Washington C. H.

Eldin Lovely, 21, and his brother, Burton Lovely, 19, both of Union, S. C., pleaded guilty to charges of stealing automobiles in Ohio and transferring them to South Carolina, when arraigned before a U. S. commissoner at Spartansburg, S. C. this week.

Both were held to the federal grand jury under bonds of $2,000 each.

Burton admitted stealing an Oldsmobile from the Houseman used car lot on Market Street here some 10 days ago, and driving it to Union.

Meanwhile, Glen J. Lovely, 48, father of the two boys, and his third son, Milton G., 23, are being held in Cincinnati in connection with their part in several auto thefts.

The federal authorities have the two men in custody at Cincinnati, by reason of their interstate thefts of cars.

The two held in Cincinnati were arrested in Hillsboro through some good work on the part of the Hillsboro police while the men were waiting to steal another car there.

'Music Wonderland' Program To Be at Jeffersonville Sunday

"Music Wonderland," a musical program that is marked by unusual variety, is to be presented Sunday by the music department of Jeffersonville High School in the high school auditorium at 8:15 P. M.

Taking part in the Music Wonderland, which is under the direction of Walter L. Hurd, will be the Senior Band, the Junior Band and the Mixed Chorus.

The program is to open with "Rifle Regiment March," by John Phillip Sousa. This will be the first of six numbers by the Junior Band. Four of them are marches; the other two are "Rainbow Theme," by Chopin, and "Indian Boy," by Weber.

The Mixed Chorus' part in the program is to start with selections for "A Tribute to Romberg." The other eight numbers will show the versatility of the chorus with their solo, duet and quartet parts.

Bradley McKillip is to sing the solo part in "The Desert Song". In "One Alone," Nancy Allen and Patty Fodor are to sing the first duet, Stanley Hannah and Frank Sharpe the second. Charlotte Moats is to take the solo part in "One Kiss" and she and Anna May Coe, Roger Mason and Max Harlan are to sing the quartet part.

The Mixed Chorus is to close its part of the program with the stirring "Stout Hearted Men."

* * *

AFTER THE intermission the Senior Band is to open the second half of the evening's program with a march, "Uncle Sam" and continue through its ten numbers, some of which are rather ambitious for a high school band.

Shrine Club Here Has Its Ladies Night

Shriners of the Washington C. H. Shrine Club entertained their wives at dinner at the Country Club Wednesday evening.

By and large, the evening's program was on the lighter side, but a sobering note was injected by Dr. Judson D. Wilson, a visiting potentate from Aladdin Shrine in Columbus, who sketched the progress being made in the Crippled Children program, which is the major project of the Shrine on a nationwide level.

He told the gathering that steady progress is being made in the treatment and rehabilitation of crippled children and then disclosed the probability that the Shrine would have its own children's hospital in the not too distant future. To many of those in the gathering Dr. Wilson's report about the plans for a hospital was news. He did not say where it may be located.

Nearly 150 Shriners and their wives were seated at the long tables for the dinner while Walter Shoop, a Shriner himself, entertained. His organ was set up in the alcove and he played request numbers steadily throughout the dinner.

Also on the entertainment program were the famous Piccadores from Aladdin Shrine. This is a group of musicians who play stringed instruments and sing. Heading the Piccadores, was Ralph Shirkey, high priest of Aladdin Temple.

Visiting Shriners and their wives were there from Greenfield, Sabina and Chillicothe.

183 Seniors on BIE Day Visits

Free Enterprise Principles Are Given Emphasis

Prin. John Trace of Washington C. H. High School summed up the student reaction to Wednesday's Business-Industry-Education Day with one word: "Splendid."

His appraisal of this "splendid" student reaction to the day the 183 seniors from five high schools spent in businesses and industries to learn from the top executives or their representatives about the American system of free enterprise and what makes it tick during a brief review session when they returned to the high school auditorium.

He commented, too, that many of them had said they felt they learned a great deal and appreciated the opportunity to participate in the B-I-E Day program; most of them, he added, said they would have been glad to participate even on their own time.

From the spokesmen for business and industry came these typical reactions: "The students were very receptive" and "their attitude was very good."

Thus, a sampling of reaction among the seniors and the business and industry spokesmen revealed that everyone considered the event worthwhile and practical.

This is the fourth B-I-E Day held in Fayette County; they all have followed the same general pattern. It has been emphasized that the BIE Day visits of the seniors are not merely plant tours, but rather that they would be given explanations of the operations of the businesses and industries.

* * *

THE EVENT started at the Washington C. H. High School auditorium where Supt. W. A. Smith welcomed the 20 seniors from Bloomingburg, 17 from Jeffersonville, 11 from Madison Mills, 7 from Good Hope and 128 from Washington C. H. and urged them to pay close attention to what they were to see and hear during the day.

Robert Terhune, president of the Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored the BI-E Day served as the master of ceremonies for the orientation meeting.

Rev. Clinton W. Swengel, pastor of Grace Methodist Church, told the young people of the responsibilities that are theirs in this American way of life and its free enterprise system.

A motion picture entitled "It's Everybody's Business," made cooperatively by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and the I. E. Du Pont Co., was shown. It underscored the benefits and responsibilities of free enterprise.

Glen Allen, the manager of the Chamber, then called out the names of the seniors and assigned them to their business and industry hosts for the day. The students also were the guests of their hosts for lunch; most of them were taken to an outside restaurant.

All of the students returned to the high school auditorium in time for regular school dismissal. Those who had come from the county high schools boarded the busses immediately for the return while those of the city school went to the

Dewey Huffman, who has headed the Washington C. H. High School vocational agriculture department for the last three years, has handed his resignation to Supt. Smith, who said it would be taken up for official action by the School Board at a special meeting Monday.

Supt. Smith, who made the announcement, indicated school authorities would grant his request. It was obious, however, that Supt. Smith felt he had done such a good job here that his place would be hard to fill.

Huffman had been offered a present position by the board at its last meeting.

Huffman gave the key to his plans for the future in his letter of resignation.

He expressed his appreciation of the "kind consideration" extended to him by the school officials and other members of the faculty and said this had done much to make his stay here "a happy one."

Then he said that he had accepted no position yet although he has had several "encouraging offers."

He did not indicate what these offers were, but he did say in his letter that he hoped to remain here and get into some phase of work in the field of agriculture.

Although he was native of Pikeville, Ky., Huffman lived in Jackson County, Ohio, where he had a small farm, before he entered the vo ag service and eventually came to Washington C. H.

He went into the army when he was graduated from high school and lost a leg in the famed "Battle of the Bulge" in Europe in the second world war. Out of the army, he took a position of office manager for a lumber company in Detroit but returned to the farm and finally went to Ohio State University's College of Agriculture from which he was graduated with qualifications for a vocational agriculture teacher. He is now working for his master's degree at Ohio State.

Severe Storms Hit Some Areas

CHICAGO (AP) — Thunderstorms, some severe, rumbled across wide areas of the mid-continent during the night and early today. Tornadic winds whipped some sections in Nebraska, Oklahoma and Kansas.

The stormy weather extended from Minnesota and the eastern Dakotas southward to the western Gulf of Mexico.

A small tornado hit a farm area near Rokeby, Neb., southeast of Lincoln, late last night but no injuries were reported. Several tornado funnels were reported in south central Kansas and northern Oklahoma. Some farm buildings were damaged. One person was injured in Oklahoma, which was hit by hail and rain.

Big Atomic Test Postponed Again

SURVIVAL CITY, Nev. (AP)—Unfavorable winds today caused the third postponement of the big atomic test of the current series.

Operation Cue thus became Operation Miscue to the more than 5,000 persons who braved another chilly desert night for exercises designed to test this nation's civil defenses.

The 40-kiloton test was called off at the last minute, just before the bomb was scheduled to go off at 5:15 a. m. The postponement came after a weather conference starting at 4:45 a. m.

Fisherman's Body Found In Lake

CELINA (AP)—Deputies said the body of Wilfred Abels, 31, of Coldwater was recovered yesterday from Lake St. Marys.

Abels was believed drowned during a heavy windstorm last Friday. The body of an unidentified man, a fishing companion of Abels, has not been recovered.

'3 R's' Bill Compromise Gets Approval

Ohio's Legislature Lists Basic Subjects For Public Schools

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Come next September — if Gov. Frank J. Lausche approves — Ohio schools again will be required to teach eight basic subjects.

The Legislature yesterday reached final agreement on the "three R's" bill.

Since 1943, when a "sleeper" amendment of unrecalled origin sneaked into Ohio's school laws, Ohio schools have been required to teach nothing except American history and government.

Yesterday the Legislature approved a joint Senate-House conference committee compromise on the "three-R's" bill to put the law approximately back to where it was before 1943.

After months of haggling, the principal action of legislators was to change the law to read that schools "shall" teach the basic subjects instead of "may" teach.

These were yesterday's other major developments:

The Senate virtually complete legislative action on a House-approved bill requiring persons suffering from communicable tuberculosis to enter hospitals.

The Senate adopted and sent to the House two proposed contitu tional amendments which would permit the Legislature to raise or lower salaries of judges and most public officials during their terms of office. The Constitution now bans any changes in these salaries during term.

The Senate defeated another proposed constitutional amendment which would have permitted the Legislature to raise or lower salaries of elected state officials from governor on down.

As originally presented, all three constitutional changes would have permitted increases during officials' and judges terms. But they would have retained the ban on salary reductions.

The compromise amendments which led to legislative agreement on the "three-R's" bill covered the "wet-dry" issue and the question of the educational background children should have before they are exposed to foreign "isms."

As the basic-subjects will passed the Senate, it provided schools may teach the "effect of excessive use of alcoholic beverages." That wording was changed to the "effects of the use of alcoholic beverages."

A Senate amendment had provided a full backgrounding of each child in American history and government before he might be taught such subjects as sociology, economics, foreign trade, United Nations and socialism and communism.

The compromise dropped economics and sociology from the list.

Another constitutional amendment is up for a Senate vote today. It provides for a bonus to veterans of the armed services during the period of the Korean conflict.

The proposal is for a 100-million-dollar bond issue to be repaid by a real estate tax. Some 286,000 veterans of the Korean War period were Ohio residents. They would be paid $10 a month for domestic service and $15 a month for overseas service with a maximum of $400 each.

The Korean bonus plan must receive a three-fifths favorable vote in each house before it may be submitted to Ohio voters next November.

426 More Children Get Shots

CITY SCHOOL CHILDREN received their shots of the Salk polio vaccine Thursday. In the TOP PHOTO, Becky De Witt seems doubtful about the whole thing as Dr. Joseph M. Herbert gives her the injection. Mrs. Samuel Douds holds her arm. Mrs. Herbert (left) and Miss Gretchen Darlington, Health Department nurse, fill more syringes. Becky, a second-grader at Rose Avenue, received her inoculation on the stage of the high school auditorium, along with children from Central, Cherry Hill and Rose Avenue schools. The curtains were drawn for privacy. In the LOWER PHOTO, a group of Cherry Hill second graders line up for their shots from the same doctor and nurses.

Polio Vaccine Given Kids Of 5 City Schools

A total of 426 first and second graders in the Washington C. H. schools received their first shots of Salk polio vaccine Thursday morning at centers in three of the city schools.

The number of children inoculated remained almost unchanged despite reports received Wednesday afternoon that six children in California had contracted polio after receiving shots of the vaccine.

Supt. W. A. Smith said he had heard no reports form any of the five city schools that parents had withdrawn permission for their children to receive the vaccine. He added, however, that school authorities were ready to honor any such requests.

At the Health Department, only two withdrawals from the program were reported. No reason was given in either case, according to Miss Gretchen Darlington, senior nurse for the Department.

The shots, the first of a two-shot series, were furnished without charge to all the youngsters whose parents gave permission. Cost of the vaccine was paid by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, with the nurses and lay workers contributing their services.

The second shots in the series will be given to all the county school youngsters on May 18 and to city school pupils on May 19.

* * *

FEW CHILDREN were absent absent from school Wednesday, when the county school children were inoculated, or Thursday when the city school children were shot, according to Miss Darlington. But for those few who were, a make-up clinic will be held Tuesday at the Health Department in the Court House.

Children are to report at 9 A. M. with their permission slips signed by their parents. Miss Darlington added that it would help expedite matters if each child's parents accompanied him.

The program laid out by the Health Department ran smoothly at all three centers, doctors reported. At Central School, where Dr. Joseph Herbert inoculated 201 children from Central, Rose Avenue and Cherry Hill schools, the entire group of youngsters got their shots in just 53 minutes.

Nurses and parents reported that there were almost no cases of children crying or pulling away from the needle. The same reports came from Eastside, where Dr. N. A. Dyer inoculated 120 kids in half an hour and from Sunnyside, where Dr. Robert Woodmansee shot 105 children in about an hour.

The speed with which the program was carried out shows how calmly most of the children took the experience. A few reports of children having "nervous stomachs" came in, but for the most part, the kids took their shots and accepted the lollipops with a cool air that astounded their elders.

Working by the sides of the doctors at the three centers were teams of nurses, teachers and lay workers, most of the latter volunteers from among the children's parents.

At East Side School, the workers were as follows: nurses—Mrs. Jef-

Garbage Collection Proposals Being Studied by City Council

Little business was transacted by city council Wednesday night, most of the time was spent in discussing garbage and trash collection.

Two men made applications for a franchise to collect garbage and trash in the city and council finally adjourned to go into another executive session, with indications the discussion would be continued there.

Lloyd Cartwright, requesting a franchise, said he had a large shed for paper, etc., and feeds hogs. He said he would obtain equipment for proper handling of the garbage and refuse.

City Manager James F. Parkinson stated that he had received a query from another man, offering to do the collecting at a figure less than usually paid for such work.

It developed that Leo Gilmore had made such an application some two weeks ago, but no announcement of the fact had been made.

* * *

GILMORE, who was waiting outside the council room, was called in and discussed the proposal with council for some time.

He said he had a large cooker, collected some garbage now, and would purchase a compressor or disposal truck of latest design for proper handling of garbage and waste material.

Council members, after hearing Gilmore and discussing the matter, decided there were still some phases of the proposal to be considered before definite action is taken.

Chief among these seems the many push cart owners and truckers are now collecting garbage and trash. A franchise given to one person or company, it was feared, might cut off the means of livlihood for these push carts and truckers.

Council adopted a resolution supporting House Bill No. 271, which would give the public utilities commission greater powers in dealing with rate cases.

City Manager Parkinson stated that the measure was being supported by the Ohio Municipal League.

Ike Puts Zhukov To Tough Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has posed a tough test of the power and good will of Soviet Marshal Georgi Zhukov, comrade-in-arms of 10 years ago.

Ever since Eisenhower became president there has been speculation that the friendly relationship which existed between the two men in the rule of occupied Germany might someday, in some way, help to bridge the gap between Moscow and Washington.

This speculation was stimulated last February when Zhukov stepped up to the post of defense minister after Nicolai Bulganin became premier.

Now the President has written Zhukov saying to him something like this:

"Why don't you help obtain the release from Red China of 15 American airmen held over from the Korean War. Why don't you persuade the Chinese Reds to let other Americans come home?"

That was the sense of what Eisenhower is reported to have written Zhukov about two weeks ago. At a news conference yesterday he declined to disclose the contents of the correspondence he said had taken place.

From other sources it was learned that Zhukov initiated the correspondence about three weeks ago with an appeal to the President to bring about the return to his parents of a Russian schoolboy who fled from East Berlin to West Berlin March 18.

The boy, Valery A. Lysikov, son of a lieutenant colonel in the Soviet air force, was returned April 9. U. S. authorities at Berlin announced he had decided he wanted to go home.

Zhukov had forwarded to the President a letter he received from Col. Lysikov. Zhukov had called the President a great humanitarian, according to a responsible account of the exchange, and said he knew the President would realize the anxiety of the family.

Immediately after the boy's return, Eisenhower wrote Zhukov calling it to his attention.

He added that he hoped Zhukov could realize the anxiety of people whose sons were being detained in jails in Red China

Such words, going from the President to a member of the Soviet government, constituted not only an appeal but a challenge. They raised the question whether Zhukov would want to do anything about Americans held in Red China, whether the Soviet government would agree, and whether Soviet influence would prove persuasive with Red China.

Dutch Give Nod To Paris Pacts By Wide Vote

West Europe Alliance Now Ready To Act Within NATO Setup

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP)—The Paris treaties cleared the final parliamentary hurdle today. The Dutch Senate approved the pacts, previously ratified by the legislatures of all 14 other countries affected, to rearm West Germany for Western defense.

The vote was 32-2. The Dutch House endorsed the treaties 71-6 March 30.

The West Germans expect the Allied occupation to end, and their sovereignty to be restored, early next month. Their enrollment in a seven nation Western European Union and in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization is planned for meetings scheduled to begin in Paris May 7.

All of NATO's present 14 members and West Germany signed one or more of the four Paris agreements. The pacts are to (1) end the Allied occupation while authorizing Allied troops to remain on duty inside Germany; provide for the Bonn Republic's armed partnership with the West in (2) WEU and (3) NATO; and (4) give WEU political control of the Saar, the German-speaking border state which has been linked economically to France since the war.

* * *

WITH FINAL parliamentary action on the pacts in all countries completed, they must be signed by the various chiefs of state and deposited in various capitals.

Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government is slated to build up an army, air force and navy totaling a half million men. German and Allied military experts calculate, however, it will take at least three years to make the West German armed forces combat-ready.

The three main factors affecting the speed of rearmament are:

1. The Germans have to start from scratch to create modern forces for the atom age. There's a serious shortage of qualified young officers and noncoms.

2. A mass of legislation is required to legalize the raising of armed forces.

3. The public is so reluctant to rearm that it will be politically impossible to put too much steam behind the drive until all possibility of a settlement with Russia has clearly disappeared.

The top limit for the West German forces is 500,000 men. They will be divided into 350,000 soldiers in 12 divisions, 85,000 airmen in a 1,300-plane tactical air force and 65,000 sailors in a small coastal navy.

At least nine major laws will be necessary to implement the Paris treaties in Germany.

* * *

THE FIRST WILL be a "volunteer law" to establish a 150,000-man cadre for the armed forces. A conscription law will be needed to enable 350,000 men to be called up for 18 months training and then kept on reserve.

A new democratic military code is to replace the strict Prussian-style regulations of the past.

Powers to requisition land and property and raise funds for military purposes must be granted by parliament.

Parliament must decide the question of who is to be commander in chief, which is sure to stir controversy.

Parliamentary sources doubt this process can be completed much before the end of this year. That means the first recruits would be taken into service in 1956.

For all their services, there will be a cadre of 22,000 officers, 40,000 noncommissioned officers and 88,000 enlisted men. There is already doubt whether so many volunteers can be found.

Present plans for the army call for the creation of 12 skeleton divisions at first. In emergency these could be combined to make four full-strength divisions.

After about 18 months training, these divisions will be ready to take on strength through a draft.

10 Airmen Killed

NAHA, Okinawa (AP)—An American B29 bomber groping through an overcast crashed three miles from Naha airport today. Ten bodies were recovered. No names were released.

It's Wanting What You Have That Counts

Most of us on various occasions have had to listen to some individuals who bemoan their fate and who expect all the rest of us to shed countless salty tears over their alleged troubles; in most of such cases that is just what they are—alleged troubles.

Unless we have learned to "roll with the punch," as the devotees of the fighting game would say, we waste a lot of time and energy in a huge majority of such cases. While greater difficulties and tragedies are often untold and hidden behind a brave smile by others, we listen to complaints and criticisms of these others whose main difficulty seems to be that they have to much time on their hands with nothing to do and they seem to enjoy that kind of living.

Maybe that is the reason that we hear more about and from them in the way of complaints than we do from the actual polio victims who smile through their misfortunes.

All this reminds us of that significant saying we often have read — "I complained because I had no shoes, until I met a man who had no feet." Cliches are trite — but you can't beat the trite for truth. We'll never have all that we desire. The meantime is the only time for happiness.

Lives weren't set merely to sail untossed seas. Wouldn't it be dull if they were? We'd never appreciate the satisfaction of a delicious meal were we not hungry — nor the release of a hearty laugh, had we not cried. Alternate rain storms and sun showers will always clutter life. Happiness is merely cheerful patience — sitting out the storm with a smile.

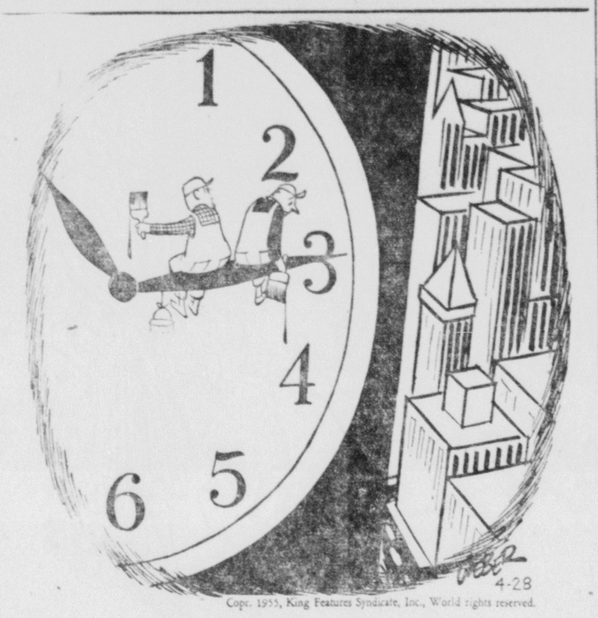

We can talk ourselves into believing it. We can convince ourselves by trusting in the sun's promise to shine again.

It takes energy to fret and explain troubles. Unless pity is the main objective, that energy can usually be used to erase the cause behind the complaint. We wonderhow many famous inventions were born of hunger; how many immortal writings resulted from a desperate last try, or how many celebrated paintings were painted with borrowed paint?

The search for happiness leads all others. It won't end until time ends, yet it's exactly like searching for spectacles when they're perched on top of our forgetful head. Happiness is right there all the time but we are so wrapped up in a thoughtless search that we've forgotten we're wearing it.

After all happiness is merely a state of mind. You'll never find it in having what you want — you have got to want what you have.

Breast-Feeding Baby What Nature Intended

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN

Most of you expectant mothers, I know, will want to nurse your babies. But before your infant is born, you'll undoubtedly hear neighbors and well-meaning friends tell you how much easier it is to bottle-feed a baby.

Breast Feeding Preferred

Don't listen to them. If you can, and not all mothers can, nurse your baby. Nature intended a baby to be nursed at his mother's breast. In addition to beig natural, it is the easiest and most inexpensive way to feed a baby.

As for work, why, you won't have to worry about making a feeding mixture, or sterilizing bottles, nipples and other utensils. Breast milk contains the right amount of the food elements your baby needs. And it is easy for him to digest because it forms small, finely divided curds in his stomach.

Contains More Iron

Breast milk is always ready to use. It is fresh, clean, warm and germ-free. It contains more iron than cow's milk. And this iron is absorbed and used four or five times better than the iron in cow milk.

Records of many cities show that sickness and death rates of bottle-fed babies are much higher than those who are nursed at the breast. I don't mean to imply that specially prepared milk mixtures aren't safe. They are, of course, if properly planned by your doctor.

Many Advantages

However, many doctors believe that a breast-fed baby has less chance of becoming ill and a much better chance of recovering if he does become ill. Severe diarrhea, for instance, seldom occurs.

Another argument in favor of breast-feeding is that it forms a closer bond between a mother and her baby. By holding and fondling her baby, a mother satisfies his innate need for love and affection.

Contrary to the belief of many, breast-feeding will not cause a mother's breasts to become flabby. Neither will it cause her to become fat. A mother's womb becomes enlarged during pregnancy. Many doctors believe that a baby's suckling is one of nature's ways of helping shrink the womb to its normal size and bring the mother's body back to normal proportions.

Answer: Hemorrhoids or piles are satisfactorily treated in most cases by means of operation. The injection treatment is helpful in certain instances.

Kentucky's Bourbon Helped

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—America introduced a secret weapon to win a draw with the Russians in an odd hospitality war fought along the Elbe River 10 years ago.

That weapon, it now may be revealed, was Kentucky's bottled breakfast of champions—100-proof bourbon.

As soon as the two Allied armies linked up, a number of celebrations were held. In the first flush of enthusiasm they were largely spontaneous get-togethers between small groups of individuals or officers from both armies, marked by cordiality and good will on both sides.

But as the parties went up, echelon by echelon, from division to corps to army level, the atmosphere subtly changed. The cordiality became formalized.

In this exchange of hospitality the Russians held a big edge. We wealthy Wall Street imperialists had little more than stern canned combat rations to offer. The simple virtuous peasant Soviet warriors, on the other hand, seemed to have a pipeline of plenty that led straight to Moscow. When they were hosts, the tables groaned with piles of caviar, fat cheeses, fresh cucumbers, all kinds of rich titbits you usually find only in expensive restaurants — and an endless number of carafes filled with vodka.

The Russians took a rude delight in trying to toast the Americans under the table. And it must be admitted that many of our men, worn down by months of clean living in the field, were ill-prepared to face the Soviet vodka barrage. As one officer remarked weakly after the 20-umpth toast:

"I thought Russian roulette was played with revolvers, not vodka glasses."

The lavishness reached its peak at a party thrown by Marshal Ivan Zonev, now Russian deputy minister of defense, for Gen. Omar Bradley and his staff.

Forewarned on the insidious impact of vodka, Bradley and his officers had guarded against it by swallowing quantities of canned milk and mineral oil.

Konev himself, a bald, powerfully built man, proved the first loophole in the Russian hospitality siege. He turned down the vodka and reached for a glass of white wine as an interpreter explained, "the marshal has stomach trouble."

Bradley, who is no drinking man himself, immediately switched to white wine, too, and had no trouble matching Konev toast for toast. Grinning, Bradley leaned over to a correspondent friend and whispered, "How'm I doing?" He was doing perfectly. So was his mineral-oil-fortified staff. They easily met the Russian officers on equal terms.

Following a tremendous repast a Red army chorus sang the "Star Spangled Banner," but apparently were safe from being corrupted by it as they had memorized the lyrics without understanding them.

A ballet troupe, obviously professional, then put on a splendid performance, but when Bradley praised the dancers, Konev merely remarked blandly:

"Just a few girls from the Red army."

When it came time for Bradley to hold a return courtesy party, a question arose over what liquid refreshments to offer.

"They served us their national drink," Bradley said, smiling. "We'll introduce them to one of ours—bourbon."

Although it was evident the Russian officers had been warned to be on their best behavior, two of them quickly wilted under the belting of bourbon toasts. After a polite snifter, Konev turned to his interpreter with a strained look and muttered, "too strong, too strong."

After dinner a violinist who had been specially flown there from Paris entertained the group. When Konev praised his playing as magnificent, Bradley replied with a straight face:

"Oh, it's really nothing. He's just one of our American soldiers."

The violinist happened to be a guy named Jascha Heifetz.

Ten years later, Bradley still feels that, thanks to bourbon and Heifetz, the Americans earned at least a draw in their hot hospitality war with the Russians on the river Elbe.

Red China's Chou and the Arabs

By George Sokolsky

Chou En-Lai of Red China is naturally playing up sweetly toward the Arabs who are attending the Bandung Conference. He has made friends with Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt and therefore he is now a declared enemy of Israel.

This is straight power politics because Israel is far from China, in no way affects the future of Red China, has no force that can combat the imperialism of Red China, and there are no Jews in Chou En-Lai's country.

There used to be a Jewish colony in Kaifeng that settled there sometime about the year 210, although some authorities give an earlier date. Their story is much of a mystery but it is known from tombstones and other steles that about 70 Jewish families came into China from Persia, who petitioned the emperor for a place to live and they were given an area along the Yellow River in the province of Honan. There they built a synagogue and they undoubtdly lived according to the mosaic ritual because there is a lane in Kaifeng called "Sinew Pluckers Street" which shows that these people prepared their meats to make them Mosher. Jews are called Yu Tai Jen in Chinese.

The remains of that synagogue were still evident when I lived in China and the property was owned by the Canadian mission of the Anglican church. Most of the Jews had become Mohammedans of whom there are many in Honan and Shantung provinces. There are, however, existing Jewish communities in Turkestan, the most famous of which is in Khotan.

Israel finds itself squeezed between the Western powers and Red China, both groups playing for Arab support. The United Nations, as an institution, commits itself against the State of Israel on account of border troubles but it does nothing of an consequence about the more than 500 Americans held prisoner in Red China. The United Nations makes a tremendous fuss over the Gaza incident but not about 15 American flyers who fought in a United Nations "police action."

In a word, the United Nations does not pursue a course of action based upon international law or a code of conduct set up to guide small nations in one way and with the large nations in another and avoiding action when no results can be obtained.

This may be the easiest way to follow to avoid the disintergration of the United Nations but it is not good law. Chou En-Lai and the Arabs understand this weakness of the United Nations and are taking full advantage of it.

The State of Israel is one of the few nations omitted from the Asiatic-African conference. Israel was not omitted because it is a Western power in Asia; it was excluded because the Arabs objected to its presence. Actully, Israel includes Asiatic and African Jews, native Palestinians, Yemenites, Egyptian and Moroccan Jews, the Falashas of Ethiopia, the B'nei Israel from India and many others. Apart from geography, this ethnological diversity, even on a color basis, should have entitled Israel to attend this conference. Do those who complain against racial discrimination practise it?

Nehru, the upholder of racial equality, surely should have sponsored Israel. His own relations with Moslem Pakistan have never been cordial. But Nehru too is courting the Arabs, because numbers count and Israel is without support anywhere among the great nations. And it is without support because it is small and its very existence is offensive to the Arabs who are the real third power in the world today. The only solution to this problem is an Israel-Arab conference settling all their outstanding problems.

In this situation Israel is in real peril. The Arabs are determined that the State of Israel should die. Egypt fought Israel anl was defeated on the field of battle. This umbrage, the Egyptians will never forget and Egypt remains, for the present, the focal point of Arab politics and intrigue. Great economic and religious forces come into play in this situation even in the United States and Great Britain where vested interests are vitally affected. If oil were discovered in Israel, maybe the situation would be different, but as it stands the story is, as it has been for 2,000 years, Israel stands alone.

Top Publisher Hopes Wilson Halts Censors

NEW YORK (AP)—The head of the American publishers expressed hope today that Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson will "see the error in his recent resort to censorship" in the Pentagon.

Richard W. Slocum, president of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn., criticized "the ever-present urge to censorship and a limiting of news sources." Slocum is executive vice president of the Philadelphia Bulletin. He said:

"Our problem sometimes lies more with the high-principled, loyal and conscientious public servant who just does not realize that full operation of the people's right to know is more important than any single decision.

"We shall hope that our well-intentioned secretary of defense will quickly see the error in his recent resort to censorship in an effort to check alleged secret leaks."

Wilson told a Washington news conference April 12 that he tightened Defense Department rules on giving out military information to keep potential enemies from leaning too much, but insisted his directive was not censorship.

Slocum said this year is a time for an accounting of the newspapers as "trustees of a fundamental freedom—the people's right to know."

For Prevention Of Accidents At Crossings

This Week Set Aside For Special Warning To All Drivers

April 24 to 30 is Highway Railroad crossing accident Prevention Week in Ohio by proclamation of Governor Lausche and the mayors of many municipalities.

In his proclamation the Governor mentioned that 5 lives a month have been saved since special emphasis has been given to this phase of highway safety.

113 persons died in collisions between motor vehicles and railroad trains in this state last year. Yet this was the best year in the 16 for which records are available.

Henri Marc, President, Ohio State Safety Council, said: "Nearly one-third of these people died because the auto in which they were riding struck the train that was already on the crossing. Almost as many drove on the tracks, stalled their car and could not get out before the collision took place.

"There is no other type of traffic accident where the motorist can so completely control matters himself. Trains can't hit autos that stop at crossings when a train is approaching.

"Ohio law requires a driver to stop when an electrical or mechanical signal or a flagman indicates that a train is coming. A good many of the grade crossing accidents would not occur if drivers obeyed this part of the law."

The railroads of the state will be observing crossings throughout the week, alert for violations of this section of the motor vehicle code. Marc says that enforcement officials, vehicle fleets, and publicity media arrre assisting the Council a the Ohio Department of Highway Safety in the program.

Many railroad speakers will appear before civic groups and hundreds of teachers of Driver Education classes will give special emphasis to proper cautious approach to railroad crossings.

The Department of Highway Safety is issuing a special poster that will be given wide distribution.

He said "Any time is train time on any track. We saved 5 lives a month because more drivers are more careful in approaching and crossing railroad tracks. But we are still losing ten lives a month because some people don't seem to realize that trains still use the tracks.

"We can save another five lives if only a few more people recognize that there's no sense in racing a train to a crossing."

(City School Superintendent)

We are continuing today the Board of Education's policies on Pupils' Admission and Assignment:

Section 7.1 Age for admission to first grade: Children within the Washington Court House City School district reaching six years of age on or before the dates in the following years: October 31, 1955, September 30, 1956, shall be admitted to the first grade at the beginning of such school year beginning in September.

Section 7.2 Determination of age: The presentation of a birth certificate or other satisfactory proof of age shall be required of each child upon admission to the Washington Court House City Schools.

Section 7.3 Vaccination: No child who has neither been successfully vaccinated nor had smallpox shall be permitted to attend any school within the Washington Court House School District.

Section 7.4 Assignment of pupils: Pupils shall be assigned to each of the buildings by the Superintendent of schools according to the school district boundaries adopted by the board of education. No pupil shall be allowed to enter or remain in a school out of his district except by special permission of the superintendent of schools. In case of removal from one school district to another within the city during any semester, parents may continue to send their children to school they may have attended at the time of removal until the end of the current semester, or year.

Section 7.5 Transfer of pupils: Pupils may be transferred from one room to another or from one building to another whenever necessary by reason of promotion, overcrowding, change of residence, or for such other reasons as the superintendent may deem sufficient.

Section 7.6 Transportation: Transportation will not be provided for pupils living within two miles of the elementary school to which they have been assigned or within two miles of the elementary school to which they have been assigned or within four miles of the high school which they attend unless they have been specifically authorized to ride by the superintendent of schools.

744 Persons Draw Total Of $42,729

During April 744 aged pensioners in Fayette County drew a total of $42,729 with $2,313.42 additional for health care.

The average amount paid to those on the rolls in Fayette County was $57.43, which was somewhat above the state average. Payments run all the way from an average of 52.21 in Belmonst County, to $58.36 in Knox County.

There was little change in the number of persons drawing public pay in April compared with the number in March.

CHANGES

Changes come to everything-
Human beings, places, life;
Youth to age, just a short space,
Can be severed as by knife;
Places known are torn away-
Other places take their place;
Life goes on but changing too
And it goes at swifter pace;
Changes here and changes there,
Peaceful days are gone for good;
Rush, hurry to go somewhere,
Now, is all that is understood,

1919 Penny Deal Is Almost Fatal

UTICA, N.Y. (AP)—Fred Schwender went into the appliance business in 1919. He celebrated his 36th anniversary yesterday.

To publicize the event, he announced that anyone who brought in a 1919 penny would receive 36 cents in trade.

Coin collector Arthur Repple rummaged through 40,000 coins and found 878 such pennies. He swapped them for a refrigerator. Said Schwender:

"I'm glad I didn't say $36."

DOWN GOES THE OLD ST. ANDREW'S EPISCOPAL Church on East Street. First step in the wrecking process was stripping the siding and interior. Then a cable from the wrecking car at left was wrapped around the building and the wrecker's winch pulled the old landmark down with a stranglehold. Seconds after this picture was taken, the church was nothing but a tumbled mass of lumber, looking much more like a giant pile of jack straws than anything that ever had been "The Little Church around the Corner." (Record-Herald photo)

'Neighborhood Friends' To Meet at Grace Church

A comprehensive citywide organization set up by the Methodists today was about ready to take its first big step toward spreading the influence of Grace Church.

Monday night, a meeting that is to be known as a "Neighborhood Friends Mixer" is to be held in Fellowship Hall of the Church.

A letter that has been sent out to about 50 "Neighborhood Friends" sounds the keynote of this new church-expansion project with this paragraph:

"This is a meeting planned strictly for fun and entertainment and getting acquainted. There will be no soliciting of money, nor will anyone be asked to do anything except have a good time."

The letter, which was sent to the leaders in the affair says this meeting is designed to bring together not only members of the church, but all friends of Grace Church.

The leaders are told in the letter to invite "those on your list and anyone who is or may beome a friend of the church."

The letter says high school age children" will enjoy our entertainment" and adds that "for the younger children we will have movies in another room."

The meeting is to start at 8 o'clock Monday night when dessert will be served, and the letter promises that "the meeting will be over early."

* * *

TO LAY THE groundwork for this new venture in church build-up, chairmen were named for each ward and then leaders for each precinct who were to organize the neighborhoods.

The purpose, one of the moving spirits explained, was for the leaders to call on the Neighborhood Friends, to explain Methodism to them and invite them to attend Grace Church if they are Methodists or have no church affiliations; if they belong to another church, they are to suggest that they attend their own church or the church of their choice.

It was made plain, however, that the Neighborhood Friends are not proselyting when they invite newcomers to worship at Grace Church.

Chairman of the first ward is Mrs. C. E. Eckle, of the second ward, Mrs. John F. Dial, of the third ward, Mrs. Harold Craig and the fourth ward Mrs. W. R. Everhart.

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP) — Happy honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Leffingwell, wherever you are. But there's gloomy news at home. Wilfred Senecal told police his car had been broken into last Saturday while he attended the Leffingwell's reception. More than half the couple's wedding gifts were stolen.

4 Million Bricks Claimed Stolen

HAMILTON, Ont. (AP) — Glen P. Van Meter, 54, accused of helping steal four million bricks from a Cleveland brick firm, was arrested here yesterday.

He and Carl Fritch, 38, both former employes of the Euclid Shale Brick Co., are accused of selling the bricks, worth $123,000, and pocketing the money. Fritch has not been located.

Fried Chicken Is in Prospect

Poultry Prices Take Sharp Drop

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Frying chickens will offer outstanding value for shoppers in the nation's food stores this weekend.

After rising sharply at wholesale for the past several months, there was a definite downturn this week in the price of the birds, and most retailers plan to make fryers their No 1 feature. Prices will be down as much as six cents a pound from a week ago.

"Frying chicken prices are getting back to normal again," commented one meat specialist. "And they may go a little lower next week."

Looking ahead to May, the U.S. Department of Agriculture notes that supplies of broilers and fryers are expected to average two per cent larger than a year ago. The USDA remarks that fried chicken is a picnic favorite and that barbecued chickens are popular in early summer.

Shoppers will also find a broad selection of beef cuts among advertised specials for the weekend. Items mentioned by a number of markets include prime ribs, pot roast, round roast, round steak and corned beef.

Legs of lamb will be featured in a number of markets, but in most sections of the country, prices will be unchanged from a week ago. In the pork line, there will be specials here and there on smoked hams and fresh picnics. Lower prices on veal shoulder roast and legs and rumps of veal were mentioned by a few stores.

Egg prices may be lower in your market. Reductions of two to four cents a dozen are being made in many areas.

Are you eating more shrimp these days? Someone is. The Shrimp Assn. of the Americas reports that during the first two months of this year, Americans consumed more than 21 million pounds of shrimp. In the same two months a year earlier, the figure was only 14 million pounds.

There's lots of variety on the vegetable counters. Onions are cheap, although quality is mosty ordinary to fair. An exception is the new crop Texas onion, which sells at a slightly higher price.

Spinach, cabbage and nearby greens such as radishes, kale, rhubarb and leeks offer good value, too. Produce men also favor escarole, endive, corn, asparagus, carrots, small and medium peppers, old crop potatoes, beets, celery, iceberg lettuce, cucumber, squash and beans. The quality of beans is improving.

The best buys in fruits are the old standbys — oranges, grapefuit and apples. Strawberries are a little lower than a week ago because supplies are increasing

WCH Lions Club Convention Host

Sub-District Meet In Dayton Sunday

Nearly half of the members of the Washington C. H. Lions Club today had their sights set on Dayton where they plan to go Sunday to take part in the sub-district convention of Lions Clubs in this 13-C district.

DONALD J. GIBSON

This is not just a run-of-mine convention for Washington C. H. Lions; they have a major part in it because, since one of their fellow club members, Don Gibson, is the district governor, the Washington C. H. club takes the role of convention host.

Just what the role of host will involve and what will be expected of the Washington C. H. Lions is still somewhat obscure, but one thing is certain, they will be right in the middle of whatever is going on at the convention.

FINIS E. DAVIS

Gibson will be in charge of the business part of the meeting which is scheduled to get underway at 2 P. M. At this session members and officers of the 51 clubs will be present and all cabinet officers of the eight-county district will report on the year's activities.

The ladies of the Lions Club members are invited to the convention and a special program has been arranged for their enjoyment during the afternoon.

Dr. Dan J. V. Martin of Greenville, International Director from Ohio will introduce Director Davis.

District Governor Gibson will award district contest prizes at the dinner. The awards will go to the club with the best secretary report, bulletin editor and to the club with the best attendance record.

Music during the dinner will be by Pete Wilson's band, currently playing in the Kitty-Hawk room of the Biltmore.

In announcing the speaker for the banquet Gibson said Lion Davis is Superintendent of the American Printing House for the Blind, and a member of the Board of Directors of the American Association of Workers for the Blind. In 1952 Davis was a U. S. delegate to the world conference on education of blind youth which was held at Bussum in the Netherlands.

Ronnie, who is 16, has been a busy young man for the last seven years with his school and farming activities. He has been in 4-H club work since he was in the fourth grade and also has been active in the Methodist Youth Fellowship, Jeffersonville chapter of Future Farmers and the high school chorus and band. He is president of the Jeffersonville High School junior class and sentinel of the FFA. He was a delegate to the National FFA convention and is a member of the Junior Fair Board. DeMolay is a fraternal order sponsored by master Masons.

Trash Pick-up From Streets Early Friday

With the annual "Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up" week here half gone, plans for the pick-up on Friday after the clean-up for four days today were all set at the City Hall.

When City Manager James F. Parkinson proclaimed this week as 'Clean-up, Paint-up, Fix-up Week" he also made arrangements for the part the city would play in the event.

With the Chamber of Commerce cooperating by handling the calls, the city manager has assigned truks to make the rounds of the city, street by street, to pick up trash that has been gathered up during the previous four days.

Because the city trucks have been in constant use in the street maintenance program and development of the park along Millikan Avenue, Clyde Smith, the superintendent of the street crew, said it would simplify the pick-up if the trash is placed in containers and set out in plain sight along the street curbs.

He emphasized the importance of placing the bundles and boxes of trash at the curbs early Friday morning. Because of the urgent need for the trucks, he pointed out, that it would be next to impossible to make many special calls.

City officials have suggested that people who have trash to be picked up and want to make certain it is not overlooked should call the Chamber of Commerce and give their addresses. However, it was pointed out, it will still be necessary to get it on the curb early to be on the safe side.

X-Ray Unit In Use

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army has developed a portable X-ray unit for battlefield use powered by a two-inch container of radioactive thulium. It weighs 48 pounds.

Ike's Trade Bill Given OK By Panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower was given a foreign trade bill without major changes, but it still faces a tough floor battle.

The committee approved the bill late yesterday 13-2. Senators Kerr (D-Okla) and Malone (R-Nev) were the only dissenters.

Chairman Byrd (D-Va) hailed the vote as a sign the bill could be put through the Senate without damaging amendments.

Nevertheless, sponsors of administration- opposed amendments rejected in the committee laid plans to carry the battle to the floor. Debate may begin Monday.

This was particularly true of senators who seek relief from import competition for specific commodities. One powerful lineup favors a sharp cutback on oil shipments into this country.

The Senate committee preserved, as the House had done on close votes in passing the bill earlier, the key powers sought by the President. These are a three-year extension of the 21-year-old reciprocal trade pacts law and new authority for the President to cut tariffs 15 per cent. The law gives the President power to reduce import duties in exchange for similar concessions from other nations.

Youngster Given Two Polio Shots

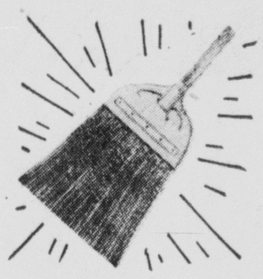

BALTIMORE (AP)—Seven-year-old Diane Weaver got her polio shot and a lollipop at Dundalk Elementary School and then stood by to see how the other youngsters took the inoculation. Before she could make the grownups understand, she had been injected a second time. She suffered no ill effects.

Akron's Rubber Growth Stalled

AKRON (AP)—The rubber industry is growing, but not in Akron, the B. F. Goodrich Co. said yesterday.

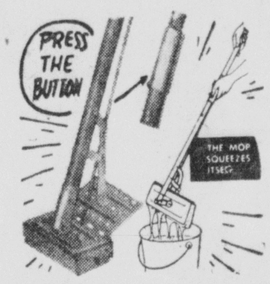

Summit County production workers number the same now as they did in 1919, and the county now employes only 19 per cent of the rubber workers in the country, compared with one-third of all rubber industry employes in 1919.

FAMILY PORTRAIT 1955

YEAR-ROUND FAMILY FAVORITE — That's GET UP! Just look at this intimate family scene around the TV set. There's little Nancy with a GET UP clutched tightly in her hand. And young Jimmy can watch the entire show because GET UP lasts so long. Big sister Cinthy loves the pretty new GET UP bottle design with its style and party flair for smart teen-age entertaining.

And her crowd loves that luscious GET UP flavor. Mother? She's delighted by the low calory count in GET UP . . . among the lowest of all soft drinks. Dad surveys the scene placidly, as all Dads do. He's glad GET UP is so thrifty—and it makes a wonderful mixer, too! Yes, here's a happy family . . . a family with GET UP!

Prominent Local Bottler Introduces New Soft Drink

New "Get Up" Makes Sensational Debut Here

Modern Trend To Lightness

Get Up, New King Size Soft Drink, Features Low Calories

"In step with modern trends to lighter foods, beverages and figures—that's streamlined new low-calory GET UP," reports Herbert Paige, quality control director of the Get Up Corporation of America.

Paige's report shows that the calory content in tasty GET UP is among the lowest in the soft drink field. Paige explained, "It's sweet enough to taste good and give quick energy. At the same time, its low-calory count prevents you from adding excess weight."

Paige's report reflects opinions of doctors throughout the country.

"You feel better, look better and live longer by avoiding excess weight," Paige pointed out. "That's why millions of modern Americans 'count calories' today—and stay healthier.

"Pleasantly plump figures went out with the horse and buggy," quipped Paige. "Low-calory GET UP is as modern as the jet age."

He pointed out that people can drink GET UP safely without adding excess pounds. "It allows you to get more enjoyment out of a soft drink, and still remain stylish."

Herbert Paige

King Size Drink Holds 2 Big Glassfuls, 12 Full Ounces, In Each Party-Flair Bottle!

WASHINGTON C. H., O. — This city has been chosen for the local premiere of a sensational new beverage — GET UP! Harold Schottenstein, president of Get Up Bottling Co. of Columbus, announced the debut of the new low-calory soft drink today.

GET UP, he pointed out, "is a streamlined sparkling drink. It's today's finest soft drink in the exciting new King Size bottle."

He predicted widespread popularity for the new beverage.

"Men, women, boys and girls want more for their money," he said. "We know that for a fact . . . look at what's happened in the cola field!

"In new GET UP", he explained, "we've increased the size of the traditional soft drink from an ordinary seven ounces to a huge 12 ounces—or two big glasses. So GET UP is among the biggest soft drinks on the market.

"Secondly," he continued, "GET UP is a grand year-round drink. It has a distinctive new flavor—fresh and exciting from your very first sip. It's a quick energy soft drink that children love. Or you can serve GET UP as a sparkler for mixed drinks."

Citing the trend in modern beverages toward streamlining, he said GET UP is lower in calory content.

Harold Schottonstein

It has one of the lowest calory counts in the soft drink field," he stated. "That means it'll appeal to weight-conscious people—active, modern women and too-busy-to-keep-trim business men."

GET UP comes in 32-ounces full quart family size bottles and in the new King Size 12-ounce bottles —six to a carton. As an introductory offer, local dealers are giving a carton of six 12-ounce bottles of GET UP for only 6c with the purchase of another carton at regular price! Customers are urged to see their dealers for delicious new GET UP!

'Get Up' Finds Favor With Local Women

During GET UP taste tests throughout this area, the following reactions to new GET UP beverage were reported to your inquiring photographer:

Mrs. Mary Devereaux: "Our teen-age children have many week-end parties, after-school get-togethers and record and TV sessions. The kids tried GET UP at their last party and they loved it. It's so economical—12 big ounces in every King Size bottle."

Mrs. Barbara Alexander: "Almost every girl in our set is calory conscious nowadays. For parties, it's often a problem what to serve. From now on it'll be GET UP — the low calory count is a delight to weight watchers. We like the big King Size bottle for home social gatherings!"

Mrs. Catherine Robinson: "GET UP was the most popular beverage at a party held recently. Guests raved about its sparkle and long lasting pep. And isn't that new bottle attractive? Its unusual design graces any table setting."

"Real Cool Soft Drink," Hep Teen-Agers Report!

"Man, dig that cool new King Size GET UP! It's the most!"

That's the reaction of teen-ager Edna Foore. If you don't "dig" what Edna was talking about, neither did your reporter. But Edna went on to explain that GET UP is the newest soft drink rage with her school crowd.

"You have to get with this cra-a-azy new drink," chirruped Edna. "We tried it at our hen club session and the chicks cooed it was real gone. Our allowances and baby-sitting fees go 'way farther when we buy GET UP!"

"Whenever we have a ball," Edna confided, "the crowd screams —but nervous—for GET UP. It gives you lots of pep and that cute party bottle with all the white circles is a real gasser!"

Edna Foore

With that your reporter vaulted into his Straight-8 iron, jetted back to the City Room, lit up a nail, dug the Dictionary of Modern slang, and had himself a 12-ounce bottle of that real gone GET UP!

Get Up Rates Public Acclaim In Cities Throughout Nation!

Both in the public market place and within the American bottling industry, GET UP has achieved sensational popularity, approval and acceptance, according to a report by Julius Darsky, president of the Get Up Corporation of America.

"At the national premiere of GET UP in Dayton, O., in the spring of 1954, Americans fell in love with GET UP," Darsky stated. "Since then, public approval has been unanimous in scores of cities. Beverage distributors everywhere are vying for franchises to produce the new soft drink.

"At the 1954 Soft Drink Industry Convention in Philadelphia," he added, "tremendous strides forward were made to help bring GET UP into every American community, store and home.

"The public has shown its appreciation for this sensational new King Size beverage," he stated. "GET UP has achieved a position of prestige on the tables of America's most distinguished hostesses!"

Julius Darsky

Designer Stresses Modern Styling

"Superb styling!" "Modern as tomorrow!" These are a few of the comments heard at the local preview of the new GET UP bottle design.

F. Eugene Smith, of design consultants Smith and Scherr, created the distinctive new GET UP bottle.

"We approached it from both functional and stylistic viewpoints," said Smith. "Other drinks were single-glass size. We needed a large, smart two-drink 12-oz. container, in keeping with the quality, sparkle and larger size of GET UP. The champagne bottle shape fits the bill. It's smoothly tapered from body to crown . . . classically elegant, yet distinctly modern!

Gene Smith

"The bright GET UP labels and white circles on the bottle have the clean-cut rhythm of modern art," Smith explained. "All in all, the GET UP container is a smart design for modern living."

'Big Future' in Get Up Local Dealers Predict

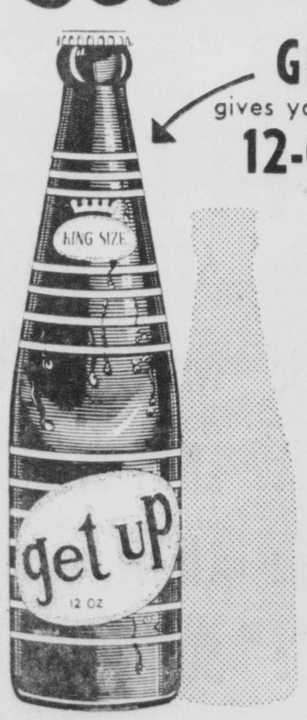

Local dealers predict phenomenal popularity for new GET UP beverage.

"It's the finest soft drink in the big two-glass bottle," said local dealer. "Yet the price is almost the same as for other brands in smaller bottles. Housewives like that kind of economy."

Other dealers report they have stocked big supplies of new GET UP in King Size 6 packs and full quarts in anticipation of the rush for GET UP.

Customers who don't find GET UP at their favorite stores are urged to have their dealers contact the Get Up Bottling Co., of Columbus, Phone CApitol 8-4331.

Lions Beat Wilmington In Return Baseball Tilt

The WHS Lions got revenge, and how, for their defeat in the first game of the baseball season when they trounced Wilmington's Hurricane, 7 to 1, at the Circle Avenue field here Wednesday afternoon behind the two-hit pitching Robinett.

The Lions were never in danger with Robinett fanning 12 of the visitors and giving up only two bases on balls.

Although the Wilmingtonians made four errors, they did not play a very important part in the Lions victory.

The Lions put across 2 runs in the second inning when Mickle, who drew a base on balls and Grooms, who got on when he was hit by a pitched ball, scored on a sharp single over shortstop by Anders, the first of his two hits.

They added two more in the third frame when Robinett got a hit and scored on Grooms' lusty triple and Grooms scored on Anders' second hit of the game.

Horney opened the fourth frame with a single and scored on an error on Robinett's grounder.

The Lions got their last run in the sixth when Horney led off with a double and came home on Mickle's single.

The victory over the Hurricane not only gave the Lions revenge for their 9-7 defeat in the opener, but gave them a record of 4 wins against only two loses.

They have two more games on their regular schedule, one with Greenfield and one with Circleville. Besides, they are planning to go to the district tournament this weekend.

The Lions of WHS will play Bexley's Lions here May 5 in their first game of the district tourney. In the drawings that were held at Columbus Wednesday evening, the Washington C. H. outfit drew a first round bye; that means the Lions will play only four tourney games — May 5, 9, 11 and 13 — while the others play five.

All games except the final, which is to be played on the Ohio State University field, are to be played on the home lots of the different schools. Teams entered are from Hilliards, Grandview, London, Circleville, Newark and five Columbus schools, North, East, West, St. Charles and Rosary, besides Bexley and Washington C. H.

Rookie Helps Indians Win Lengthy Game

CLEVELAND (AP) — Rookie first baseman Joe Altobelli, who says its "just faith and luck" that's kept him with the Cleveland Indians this long, is hoping now for a permanent job.

The 23-year-old 6-footer, who doubled and scored the winning run in yesterday's 17-inning 6-5 victory over Washington, says he'd "sure like to stay."

Manager Al Lopez, who must drop three players by May 11, says:

"Altobelli's with the club. We haven't decided who we're going to drop. Altobelli's been looking good in the field, but he hasn't been hitting until today."

The Indians were ready to send Altobelli to their Indianapolis farm two weeks ago. But they decided to take him to Detroit, his hometown, so he could see his wife and child before going to Indianapolis.

Although the left-handed first baseman has been shining in the field, he was hitting only .154 until yesterday. He got two singles and a double yesterday in seven times at bat to boost his average to .200.

Yesterday's 4 hour and 46 minute game was just 12 minutes short of an American League record. Early Wynn, making his first start, was responsible for all five Washington runs. He was relieved in the seventh, when the Nats tied the game at 5-5. Don Mossi, Ray Narleski, Bill Wight and Art Houtteman gave shutout pitching.

WHS Golfers Lose Close One

Improvement Noted In Play of Lions

Washington C. H. High School's golf team, coached by Bill McCullough, lost a close decision here Wednesday to the Eagles of Dayton Chaminade 9-7.

Even in defeat the Lions were an improved team, and McCullough is optimistic that his swingers are going to give somebody an argument before long. Three of his boys broke 50 and Fred Cahall came in with a 39-best score of the day.

"If we can get one more boy down in the low 40's," McCullough explained, "we'll be sitting pretty good."

He described Chaminade's club as on a par with the excellent Chillicothe team which swamped the Lions in their last outing. The country club's 9-hole course was in near perfect shape.

Cahall picked up four points followed by Dick Dawson with a 42 for 2½ points, Roger McClain 46 for a half point, and Fred Bellas with a 50 for no points.

The victors all broke 50. Low men with 43s were Noland 1½ points and Reynolds 3½ points. Kauflin carded a 44 for four points and McBeth finished with a 46 and no points.

McCullough was defeated in a courtesy match 36-42 by the Eagle coach Danny O'Brien, a former Washington C. H. boy.

OSU Grid Ticket Sale Plan Set Up

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio State University has its football ticket sale plans all set for 1955.

George R. Staten, director of ticket sales, said Ohio States ticket prices are the lowest in the major college field and that no change in the rate will be made.

Students, faculty, alumni association members and benefactors of the university, visiting team followers and the general public will be served in that order under the ticket priority system.

Jim Ewell, trainer of the Kansas City Athletics, was once the batboy for the Norfolk Tars in the Piedmont League.

In 1927 when Babe Ruth hit his record 60 home runs, 20 of them were hit off left handed pitchers.

Charles Upset By John Holman

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—They all the Miami Beach Auditorium "Upset Arena" because so many well-known fighters are beaten there. One of the most popular victims is Ezzard Charles.

Last night, an unrated, 27-year-old Negro from Chicago, John Holman, launched a thunderous surprise attack in the ninth round to stop Charles, a 4-1 favorite, on a technical knockout.

Referee Eddie Coachman stopped the fight at 2:48 of the ninth after Holman had nailed Charles with three straight solid rights to the head and seemed on the verge of putting the ex-champ down for good.

Ohio Fishing Condition Said To Be 'Poor'

COLUMBUS (AP)—Ohio fishing enthusiasts have been given little hope of catching that "big one" this weekend.

The state division of wildlife said yesterday lake and stream conditions will be poor over the weekend. Division specialists reported that most waterways are muddy because of recent heavy rains.

By districts, here's a breakdown of lake and stream forecasts:

NORTHWESTERN Outlook poor. Lake St. Marys is rather clear, and some crappies and cat fish are being taken. Weekend outlook there is fair. Oxbow Lake in Defiance County is likewise clear and normal with some bass and bluegills being taken. Most streams are roily, muddy and high.

SOUTHEASTERN — Best two fishing lakes seem to be Burr Oak in Athens County and Alma in Vinton County, where bass, bluegills and catfish are being caught in good numbers. Most of the streams are roily to muddy with little change expected for the weekend.

CENTRAL—Such favorite spots as Delaware Reservoir and Jackson and Buckeye lakes are roily, but considerable numbers of fish have been taken during the past week. Outlook for these lakes is fair. Some central Ohio streams, such as Wetstone, Olentangy, Alum and Big Walnut, are in ffair condition. Rocky Fork Lake in Highland County, which has produced some fine catches of muskies and smallmouth bass during the past few weeks, is clear in the lower part of the lake, but the upper part is in rather poor fishing condition.

SOUTHWESTERN — Kiser, Decker, Swift Run, Echo and Indian lakes are clear and normal and good fishing is anticipated for the coming weekend. Most of the streams in this section, however, are roily, muddy and high, and little fishing success is expected.

It's Used Car Season! See These Before You . . .

A real beauty. This 1952 DeSoto Firedome V-8 has like-new silver gray finish and dent-free metal. It also has full-time power steering for your driving ease. Only one owner, of course, drove this fine sedan and he gave it good care. Yours for just $1395

Inspect from all angles this sharp 1953 Oldsmobile 2 door sedan. This nice 88 has the famous Rocket Engine, Hydra-matic Drive, heater, oil filter, etc. Paint is a nice tutone green and the interior is clean. It has no radio so you can buy it for only $1795

My wife has been driving this 1952 Chevrolet for four months so I know it's a good car. It is the popular 210 deluxe series club coupe, tutone blue, with radio and heater. This safe, dependable automobile would be just right for your high school graduation gift. Priced at $1050.00

Check and drive the like-new 1954 Ford tudor sedan that one of our salesmen will point out to you. It has the V-8 engine, radio, heater, and Fordomatic transmission for no-shift driving. The medium blue paint is perfect as are the tires and performance of this Customline car. Best of all, it has been driven only 6523 easy miles. Buy it for $1895

Many other good automobiles to choose from. We have a good selection in most makes and models from 1949 through 1954.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Underground Enemies of Plants

By DEAN HALLIDAY
Distributed by Central Press Association

SOME insects spend their entire life cycle under the ground, while others live only part of their lives beneath the soil's surface.

The underground enemies of plants attack them at or below the surface of the ground. Gall insects, various worms, root maggots and root aphids are examples of these underground enemies.

Wireworms are one of the most destructive soil insects. They feed on the roots of vegetables and grasses, phlox and asters. They also attack gladiolus and dahlia tubers, as shown in the accompanying Garden-Graph.

Infested plants soon take on a sickly appearance and sometimes wilt and die. Upon pulling up such plants the roots will be found to have been eaten by wireworms. Seeds sometimes fail to grow because wireworms have eaten the germ.

Wireworms are the larvae of the click beetle. They are dark brown in color and one-half to 1½ inches long. The general appearance of one is shown in the Garden-Graph.

Wireworms may be controlled by treating the soil with lindane (benzene hexachloride), or the increasingly popular chlordane. Follow the directions given, according to the nature of your garden soil.

Wireworms can also be trapped through their own greediness, since they are fond of fresh carrots, potatoes or beets. Slices of any of these vegetables can be buried 2 to 3 inches deep in the soil. Use a small stick to mark the spot. In a few days dig up the bait and destroy the wireworms. Repeat with fresh bait.

9 Major Bills Up For Vote In Legislature

$5½ Million School Aid Bill Tops List Before Ohio Solons

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's legislators adjourn for the weekend today after voting on nine bills, including an emergency measure appropriating more than 5½ million dollars to enable the state to meet its school subsidy bill this year.

Because of a big increase in school enrollment, the state was $5,860,000 short in school subsidy funds for the two-year fiscal period ending June 30 The bill by Rep. J. Frank McClure (R-Ashland) appropriates that much out of the state treasury surplus.

The Senate yesterday approved and sent to the House a proposed amendment to the Ohio Constitution providing a 100-million-dollar bond issue to pay a state bonus to members of the armed forces during the Korean conflict.

The Senate vote was unanimous, 30-0. Three-fifths of the elected members of the House must concur before the question can be placed on the election ballot next November for approval of the voters.

Actual cost of the bonus is estimated at 80 million dollars. Eligible Ohioans probably will number 286,000. Eligible survivors may number about 1,900.

Payments would be based on $10 a month for domestic service and $15 a month for overseas service during the Korean War emergency.

Two Republicans—Sens. William Tyrrell of Preble County and Lowell Fess of Greene County—sponsored the bonus proposal.

Other major actions yesterday:

The Senate passed and sent to the House a bill, over Democratic objections, to make permanent the liberalization of state law on employment of women and minors originally adopted as a World War II emergency.

The House passed and sent to the Senate two bills covering student housing at the six state universities. One permits construction of dormitories on state-owned campuses for married students instead of single students only. The other continues until mid-1961 permission for state universities to operate temporary living quarters intended originally for war veterans.

The House also passed and sent to the Senate a bill to allow sale of milk in ¾-pint containers on grounds such containers would increase milk sales.

The House Elections and Federal Relations Committee recommended House passage of a proposed constitutional amendment for a 150-million-dollar bond issue to finance construction of mental institutions and schools in financially-pressed school districts. The vote was 12-1.

Store 'Inspectors' Actually Thieves

PORTSMOUTH (AP) — Two men, posing as electrical inspectors, carted away merchandise valued at $3,000 from the Atlas Fashion's Women's Wear store while employes were at a staff meeting yesterday.

Mortan Atlas, a firm member, said a number of employes talked to the men as they roamed the building. Atlas said he asked them if they wanted to buy the store because of the way they eyed it. They said no.

The loot included 10 cashmere coats and 14 fur coats.

'Music Wonderland' Program To Be at Jeffersonville Sunday

"Music Wonderland," a musical program that is marked by unusual variety, is to be presented Sunday by the music department of Jeffersonville High School in the high school auditorium at 8:15 P. M.

Taking part in the Music Wonderland, which is under the direction of Walter L. Hurd, will be the Senior Band, the Junior Band and the Mixed Chorus.

The program is to open with "Rifle Regiment March," by John Phillip Sousa. This will be the first of six numbers by the Junior Band. Four of them are marches; the other two are "Rainbow Theme," by Chopin, and "Indian Boy," by Weber.

The Mixed Chorus' part in the program is to start with selections for "A Tribute to Romberg." The other eight numbers will show the versatility of the chorus with their solo, duet and quartet parts.

Bradley McKillip is to sing the solo part in "The Desert Song". In "One Alone," Nancy Allen and Patty Fodor are to sing the first duet, Stanley Hannah and Frank Sharpe the second. Charlotte Moats is to take the solo part in "One Kiss" and she and Anna May Coe, Roger Mason and Max Harlan are to sing the quartet part.

The Mixec Chorus is to close its part of the program with the stirring "Stout Hearted Men."

Shrine Club Here Has Its Ladies Night

Shriners of the Washington C. H. Shrine Club entertained their wives at dinner at the Country Club Wednesday evening.

By and large, the evening's program was on the lighter side, but a sobering note was injected by Dr. Judson D. Wilson, a visiting potentate from Aladdin Shrine in Columbus, who sketched the progress being made in the Crippled Children program, which is the major project of the Shrine on a nationwide level.

He told the gathering that steady progress is being made in the treatment and rehabilitation of crippled children and then disclosed the probability that the Shrine would have its own children's hospital in the not too distant future. To many of those in the gathering Dr. Wilson's report about the plans for a hospital was news. He did not say where it may be located.

Nearly 150 Shriners and their wives were seated at the long tables for the dinner while Walter Shoop, a Shriner himself, entertained. His organ was set up in the alcove and he played request numbers steadily throughout the dinner.

Also on the entertainment program were the famous Piccadores from Aladdin Shrine. This is a group of musicians who play stringed instruments and sing. Heading the Piccadores, was Ralph Shirkey, high priest of Aladdin Temple.

Visiting Shriners and their wives were there from Greenfield, Sabina and Chillicothe.
